Division of Education Newsletter
Indiana University Kokomo

Volume 1, Number 11

Highlights

- EdSAC’s “Trick or Bookmark” Take on Halloween
- Multicultural Education Within the Pages
- P290 Lesson in Empathic Understanding

Division Calendar

This Week’s Events

- Friday, 11/03
  New Student Orientation
  7:30 AM - 2:00 PM

- Saturday, 11/04
  Arts & Crafts Show
  IU Kokomo Kelley Student Center
  8:00 AM - 3:00 PM

Upcoming Events

- Monday, 11/06
  It’s a Big Big World
  ECEC Activities Center
  IU Kokomo Continuing Studies Bldg
  5:00 PM - 7:00 PM

EdSAC's "Trick or Bookmark" Take on Halloween

EdSAC members created bookmarks in the CuLab on Wednesday, October 18th. These bookmarks will be distributed by EdSAC members during the IU Kokomo Halloween Open House on October 27th.

Multicultural Education Within the Pages

On Wednesday, October 18th, preservice teachers in Linda Flodder’s P290 class participated in a number of learning activities designed to build empathic understanding of various disabilities and introduce how to teach children with diverse and special needs.

P290 Lesson in Empathic Understanding

Professor Ogawa utilized the CuLab on October 16th for his E325 class. Charlotte Miller shared a wide range of fiction and non-fiction books that are housed in the CuLab and characteristics of diverse trade books.