Department of Humanities

Mission Statement
The mission of the Humanities major is to provide an interdisciplinary degree in humanities to students who are interested in philosophy, foreign language, visual arts, theater, music, folklore, English, and/or communication arts. The Humanities major meets the goals of the IU Kokomo mission statement in that it offers a bachelor’s degree and fulfills the mission of “enhancing research, creative work, and other scholarly activity” and strengthens the “cultural vitality” of the region (IU Kokomo Mission Statement).
