JUROR

Dan Cameron, art critic, is the senior curator of the New Museum of Contemporary Art in New York where he has presented the work of Eugenior Dittborn, Carolee Schneemann, Teresita Fernandez, Nedko Solakov and Hale Tenger. Cameron has published over two hundred articles and reviews for international art publications with a focus on new and lesser known artists. From 1990 to 1995, as a Contemporary Art Editor, he contributed to a monthly column, 'The Critical Edge' to Art Auction, in which a wide range of topics were discussed.

PROJECT DIRECTOR

TOM THOMAS, associate professor of art and local artist, has been with Indiana University East for twenty-two years and is one of only seven Indiana artists to be represented by the Rauschman Gallery. His works have also hung in galleries and private and public buildings across the Midwest, New York, Chicago and Houston. His style is bio-lyrical, which means his works are abstract, but there is some biological form linked with the lyrical abstractions. Thomas was the curator for the All Campus Art Show and authored the book "Directions" which chronicles the development of the artists in the show and art schools in the IU system.
