

$500

Scholarship Contest

Deadline: March 13, 2009

Answer one of the following sets of questions:

What impact does domestic/family violence have on individuals and the local community (e.g., social, political, economic, etc.)? What are some ways you can create change?

OR...

What impact does dating violence have on individuals and the local community (e.g., social, political, economic, etc.)? What are some ways you can create change?

OR....

What impact does campus violence have on individuals and the local community (e.g., social, political, economic, etc.)? What are some ways you can create change?

Requirements:

- Essays must be between 1000 and 1500 words (in the writing style of your academic program. e.g. MLA, APA, etc.)
- Use evidence in your essay. Include things such as research materials, personal experience, interviews, statistics, etc.
- Must be sole author—not a group paper.
- Cannot be an essay previously submitted to ADP contests.

To be eligible to win the scholarship:

- Must be currently enrolled in Spring 2009 classes
- You must plan to enroll in Summer 2009 classes or Fall 2009 classes
- Must register for classes prior to June 30, 2009.
- Must be an IU student.

Applications available at The Office of Student Activities, KC 210.

Return essays to KC210 by March 13, 2009.