

Socially Responsible Investing Club

Article 1: Mission Statement

The mission of the Socially Responsible Investments club is the education and development of SRI strategies for undergraduate students interested in this up and coming scope of investing. As a result, students will gain a better understanding of the diverse world of investing and explore potential career paths within the industry.

Article 2: Officers

2.01 The executive officers will consist of co-presidents, co-vice presidents, and a Kelley Student Government board member.

2.02 Co-presidents will be responsible for developing a curriculum, scheduling, and managing the SRI club. Co-vice presidents will be responsible for assisting the co-presidents, providing additional assistance in curriculum development, and managing the clubs budget.

2.02 Additional positions may be created by a majority vote of the executive board who will also be responsible for filling it.

2.03 Elections for co-president and co-vice president executive positions will be held at an election-specific meeting that will be decided by a majority vote in attendance. Candidates must show history of full participation in club and demonstrated interest in its future. The KSG representative will be appointed by a consensus between the co-presidents and approval of the co-vice presidents.

2.04 The removal of an officer for a just cause can be made by a majority vote of the other executive officers. If there is a tie it comes down to a consensus decision made by the co-presidents.

2.05 Club advisor will give guidance and aid in preparation for club events when necessary, and will be a non-voting member of the board. If a new club advisor is required, then he/she will be chosen by a consensus decision from the co-presidents.

Article 3: Membership

3.01 Membership and all positions within the club are open to all Indiana University Students regardless of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, or political or religious affiliation.

3.02 Students can gain membership attending a meeting and joining the email list. Members can be removed with a majority vote from the executive officers, but only if there is a just cause behind the removal.

3.03 Meetings are not mandatory, but participation in the case competition is mandatory to retain membership

Article 4: Meetings

Meetings will take place every other week, but are subject to cancellations or add-ins depending on necessity. The agenda and structure of the meetings will be decided by the co-presidents. Members will be notified of meeting times through email or canvas.

Article 5: Indiana University Compliance

5.01 Statement of University Compliance: This organization shall comply with all Indiana University regulations, and local, state, and federal laws.

5.02 Anti-Hazing Policy: Hazing is strictly prohibited. Hazing shall be defined as any conduct which subjects another person, whether physically, mentally, emotionally, or psychologically, to anything that may endanger, abuse, degrade, or intimidate the person as a condition of association with a group or organization, regardless of the person's consent or lack of consent.

5.03 Personal Gain Clause: This organization, if raising funds, shall ethically raise and distribute profits from organizational functions to either the organization or to members who provide a service that directly benefits the organization. Individual members may not receive compensation from for-profit companies if acting as a representative of a student organization.

Article 6: Club Finances

6.01 Co-Vice Presidents have the responsibility of managing the club's finances including the creation of a budget.

6.02 The budget will be created by the Vice-President in charge of finances to allocate funds received from Indiana University or the Kelley school of Business where deemed necessary. A majority vote of the Executive board will approve the budget.

6.03 A treasurer position on the executive board can be created if needed by a majority vote of the executive board who will also be responsible for filling it.

Article 7: Amendments

Amendments can be ratified by a majority vote of the executive officers.
