Lilly Library Reading Room Mural Project Announced

The Lilly Endowment Inc. has given Indiana University a grant to commission an inspirational and iconic cycle of murals for the Lilly Library Reading Room. The grant and the public call for expressions of interest were just announced on January 23, 2020. The Director of the IU Eskenazi Museum of Art, David Brenneman, is chairing a committee to seek and select the most creative and inspirational concept inspired by the collections of the Lilly Library. The artist chosen will have the opportunity to create murals which celebrate the magnificent Lilly Library collections. More information about the extraordinary gift will be available at: <https://libraries.indiana.edu/murals>.

Nan Brewer, the Lucienne M. Glaubinger Curator of Works on Paper at IU's Eskenazi Museum of Art, will discuss the thrill of finding an old appraisal in the papers of art history professor Diether Thimme that revealed a little known teaching collection at IU going back to the 1890s. Further research revealed grand ambitions to create an early art program on par with those at Oxford and Harvard Universities.

Staff News

Rivkah Cooke Accepts Position

I am very pleased to announce that Rivkah Cooke will be joining the Acquisitions Department as the Head of Electronic Resources Acquisitions on February 10. Rivkah received her Master of Library Science from Indiana University in 2012, and previously served as the Head of Accounting with the Libraries' Acquisitions Department. Rivkah currently serves as Business Manager with the IU Division of Student Affairs. Please join me in welcoming Rivkah when she begins her new role in February.

New Moving Image Cataloger

Madeline Mitchell has accepted the Moving Image Cataloger position in the IU Moving Image Archive (MIA). Madeline is currently an Archives Assistant for the MIA and is also a Copyright Researcher for the IU Libraries. She holds a bachelor's degree in History from Agnes Scott College and a MLS from IU. Please join me in congratulating Madeline on her new position, which will begin on February 4.
