Herbert S. and Virginia White Professional Development Award 2020: Call for Applications

Employees of the IU Libraries system who hold an MLS degree or have equivalent experience are invited to submit applications for the Herbert S. and Virginia White Professional Development Award. All IU Libraries staff on all campuses in clerical, technical, and PA positions, and all individuals with librarian appointments are eligible to apply for this award. The White Award has been established to support the career growth of individuals who have chosen librarianship as a profession. Further information about the award, the process, eligibility, criteria, and the application form are available on the Intranet under Communications and Development, Awards and Scholarships or at <http://bit.ly/WhiteAward>.

The deadline for applications is Friday, February 28, 2020. This includes the support letter from the applicant's supervisor. Please send your information to Christine Wagner, Advancement Assistant, cwagner@iu.edu, Wells 232, Bloomington.

The IU Libraries Scholarship and Award Committee will make the award decision and complete notification letters in April. Dean Walters will publicly announce the award recipient's name at the In-House Institute.

Library Technologies and Digital Collections Services have partnered with archivists across IU in a project called Next Generation Archives Online. In celebration of IU's 200th anniversary and with funding from the Office of the Bicentennial, this project is laying the groundwork for a unified description and discovery infrastructure and coordinated processes governing contributions to that infrastructure. Nan Brewer, the Lucienne M. Glaubinger Curator of Works on Paper at IU's Eskenazi Museum of Art, will discuss the thrill of finding an old appraisal in the papers of art history professor Diether Thimme that revealed a little known teaching collection at IU going back to the 1890s. Further research revealed grand ambitions to create an early art program on par with those at Oxford and Harvard Universities.

Staff News

Kelsey Marchant Resigns

We are sad to announce that Kelsey Marchant has resigned the position of Dissertation & Monographic Copy Cataloger in the Monographic Text Cataloging unit, Technical Services, effective February 14, 2020. Since September 22, 2014, when Kelsey joined the unit, she created thousands of original full-level bibliographic records for Indiana University theses and dissertations shared in OCLC WorldCat and IUCAT. She also cataloged reproductions and print-on-demand materials and made significant contributions in cataloging children's literature for the Education Library. Kelsey also participated in the LC/NACO Name Authority File and contributed national-level authority records, especially for Indiana University authors. From September 2013-2014, she also worked as a Serials Procurement and Access Specialist in Serials Acquisitions, and from 2012-2013, she worked as a Monographic Acquisitions Coordinator. She is leaving to spend more time with her family.

New Accounting Manager in LFS

Effective February 24, Denise Humphries has accepted the Accounting Manager position in Libraries Financial Services (LFS). Denise is currently the Accounting Representative in LFS. Prior to joining the Libraries, Denise worked for IU as the Administrative Coordinator for the Honors Program in Foreign Languages. Please stop by LFS to congratulate Denise on her new position.
