CEDAR FARM!

Laconia, Indiana

Thursday, April 28, 2016

This year we are privileged to visit CEDAR FARM, on the Ohio River in Laconia, Indiana, the historic antebellum plantation purchased and restored by Bill and Gayle Cook in 1984. Cedar Farm is one of the many properties on the National Register of Historic Places renovated by the Cooks. The plantation house, known as the Kintner-Withers House, is a classic revival in design and was built in 1837. The 2,700 acre farm is unique in Indiana, being the only such complex complete with cookhouse, schoolhouse, tenant houses, ice house, milk houses and barns.

We'll see everything the plantation has to offer on our in-depth tour of the house and gardens (electric golf carts available) and enjoy a catered lunch in the Carriage House.

On the way home, we'll visit the Artisan Center in Corydon, a gallery and workshop representing local artists and craftsmen. Just down the street, we'll make a final stop for ice cream at Emery's Ice Cream, in their historic 1816 downtown location.

SPRING

HAYS TRAIL in the Deam Wilderness

(TH) April 7, (FR) April 15, (SA) April 23, (SA) April 30

We will depart from our usual format for our spring hike by having four hikes instead of one. Saddle Creek Valley, which is accessed by a five-mile round-trip hike on the Hays Trail in the Deam Wilderness, had a spectacular show of wildflowers in 2015. Anticipating that it will be beautiful again in 2016, we are scheduling four hikes to take advantage of the succession of wildflower blooms from early through late spring. Participants can chose to take one to all four of these hikes. The hikes will take place on different days of the week to accommodate more schedules. We plan to return shortly after noon each day.

LEAVE TIME: 8:00 a.m. from the east side of the K-Mart/Bloomingfoods parking lot, near Clarizz Dr.

DISTANCE: 5 1/2 miles HIKING TIME: About 3 hours

DIFFICULTY: Moderate (hills, uneven terrain, crossing small streams)
