Professor Saam, Maria Saam (Dr.Saam's daughter), David Barrett, Sarina McCauley, and Missy Daily.

On Thursday, January 31st 109 first graders at Woodbrook Elementary School in Carmel, Indiana enjoyed learning about states of matter from some of our Elementary Social Studies and Science Methods students: David Barrett, Sarina McCauley, and Missy Daily. Professor Julie Saam and the students prepared activities to help the first graders learn important concepts regarding solids, liquids, and gases.

Activity Day @ Center for Early Childhood Education

Another successful Activity Day at the Center for Early Childhood Education. On January 31st, education students assisted throughout the day with the activities. Approximately 100 people participated.

Division of Education Scholarships

The Division of Education awards several scholarships for the 2008/09 academic year, which are different from the scholarships awarded by the IU Kokomo Office of Financial Aid. Regardless of major or program of study, to be eligible for consideration for IU Kokomo Scholarships, new students must have been admitted by April 1st and continuing IU Kokomo students must have advance registered by April 1st, 2008.

The Scholarship section of the Education web page has been updated. The details for each award, the maximum number of recipients, and the amount are posted. For example, several scholarships are awarded only for the student teaching semester. Therefore, it is important to read this page carefully. Students may apply for more than one scholarship. However, each student will be awarded only one scholarship. The scholarship recipients are selected by the Division of Education faculty.
