Service Recognition

Congratulations to Professors Margo Sorgman and Michael Tulley who were recipients of Service Recognition Awards at the Indiana University Kokomo Spring Convocation on Friday, February 12, 2008. Professor Sorgman was recognized for her twenty years of service and Professor Tulley was recognized for twenty-five years of service to IU Kokomo.

VIP Campus Visitation

On Wednesday, February 13th, the office of Admissions sponsored VIP Day for prospective new students for Fall Semester 2008. Both students and parents attended sessions designed to welcome them to IU Kokomo, inform them of our degrees, and to provide personal contact with faculty and staff. Charlotte Miller and Ed Stipp chaired the Education Major Session. During one activity, the participants considered the qualities of a good teacher. Assisting were Kellie McDonald, Education Student Leader, and Sarah Waite, meshEd President.

Successful Coaching
Presentation
Sponsored by meshEd*

On Tuesday, February 12th, meshEd sponsored a presentation by Dan Armstrong, Northwestern High School Athletic Director, who conducted an information session for persons interested in coaching. Mr. Armstrong discussed Indiana’s requirements for coaches, strategies for successful coaching, issues of player safety, and techniques for working professionally with athletes and parents.

Mr. Armstrong also presented the information regarding a successful coaching career to the Education Learning Community.
