    - i. been here for 4 years, served as SUB Director and President of CJA
    - ii. Wants to be on Senate to serve the student body more and it allows him get closer to the Student Body to let his voice be heard.
    - iii. Believes IUK is the centerpiece of Kokomo where one can earn an IU degree close to home with low fees.
    - iv. Would rather be on SRC because he is not good with numbers and is not familiar with SFC, but would do well on either. Has revised a Constitution before.
    - v. Will state his opinions even if they are not what everyone else is saying, such as issues with GSA.
    - vi. Is on campus a lot and can help is campus events.
    - vii. Although parking is believed to be an issue, does not see it as an issue or under the control of Senate.
  - b. Andrew Wilson
    - i. Has been on campus for a while and has a concern for people here.
    - ii. IUK is somewhere for low income people to come to get a college education, not where individuals can grow through activities because it's hard to get new members
    - iii. Wants to watch how the Activity Fee is spent
    - iv. Would prefer SRC because would not be effective on SFC because would vote against almost everything
    - v. Is Available for other activities on campus.
    - vi. Parking is the number one issue on campus because people cannot find a close spot, but if they walk they will get more exercise
    - vii. The second issue is the small size of campus
    - viii. Is familiar with Parliamentary Procedure.
    - ix. Wants to be in Senate to be part of the legislative experience, and is paying activity fees and it is a good way to be involved and major is history/political science.
