Attachment #1

Election Rule number 7 revision

Any individual except those working the polling table or those casting their own ballots are not allowed within 20 feet of the polling table. Individuals not working the polls or casting their ballots can move silently through the area on their way to another location. Those inside the 20 feet from the polling table are not allowed to campaign or give advice on whom to vote for. Individuals outside the 20 feet from the polling table are not allowed to communicate to those within the 20 feet from the polling table. Candidates or any person campaigning for a candidate are not allowed to work the polling tables or help count the votes. Any individual campaigning for a candidate within the 20 feet from the polling table may disqualify that candidate. Any individual violating this rule will be reported to the proper authorities.
