² All aid for students on a financial aid consortium agreement is reported on the student's home campus for that academic term.

³ IUPU Columbus students and financial aid are included in the IUPUI figures. If students enrolled on both campuses, they are counted once in the figures above.

⁵ Loans include federal subsidized and unsubsidized loans, parent loans, private and institutional loans (excluding short-term emergency loans).

⁶ Work study includes federal and state need-based work study earnings paid through the IU labor ledger.

⁷ Student counts are unduplicated, except where noted.
