Hooding Preparation

- If you plan to participate in Hooding 2009 please email Kim Kushner ASAP. In your email include how you would like your name printed in the program.
- The first Hooding meeting is Monday, March 23, 2009 at 7:00pm. Watch for an email denoting the location. There will be a lot of information distributed at this meeting. Please plan to attend. Kim will also be collecting money and distributing tickets at this meeting, so it is very important for you to attend. IF YOU CANNOT ATTEND THIS MEETING, email Kim ASAP.
- Tickets and Announcements: Everyone is allotted AT LEAST 4 tickets. The tickets are $2 for IUSPA members, and $4 for non-members. Email Kim the number of tickets you will need by Wednesday, March 18th. You can ask for more than 4 tickets in the event that others do not need all 4 of their tickets. You may order announcements to go with your tickets. You will be allotted the same number of announcements as tickets. You must request announcements if you want them. Tickets and announcements will be available at the March 23rd meeting, and you will be expected to pay for your tickets (cash or check made out to IUSPA) at that time.
- Bios: Please send me a 75-word biography that you would like read at the ceremony. Example bios are below. If you are a Ph.D candidate, please send me your research topic for the program as well. These bios and research topics are due by Friday, March 13.

Sample bio: Originally from Tampa, Florida, Mary Kay received her bachelor's degree in sports and recreation management from Temple University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 2000. For the past two years, she served as an Academic Advisor for student athletes at IU. Mary completed a practicum at the Association of College Unions International, and held a summer position in Orientation at George Washington University. After graduation, Mary hopes to pursue a career in college athletics with the NCAA or in her home state in Florida.

Sample bio: Michael Jordan is a 2000 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where he majored in political science. Originally from Wilmington, North Carolina, Michael has been a Graduate Supervisor at the McNutt Residence Center for the past two years. Michael completed his practicum with Career Counseling Services at the Career Development Center where he discovered his passion for career counseling. He will be starting his job as an Assistant Director for Career Services at Washington State University in Pullman, Washington in July.
