

Political And Civic Engagement

PACE Newsletter Oct. 13, 2011

PACE News

Hello, and happy autumn! The spring classes that count for PACE are listed at <http://pace.indiana.edu/forms/Spring%202012%20courses.pdf> Please call for an appointment to discuss your priorities and interests; I'd be glad to consult as you plan your curriculum. Please let me know if you have any questions. -Joelene

PACE now officially has a new office! We are now located in Ballantine Hall 132. Our office is just off the first-floor lobby, inside the door nearest the Chemistry Building, 1st hallway corner on the right. Feel free to stop in or call for an appointment, 812-856-1747.

PACE OPEN HOUSE

Thursday, Oct. 27, 3:30-5:00 PM
Ballantine Hall 132

Come see the brand new PACE offices in Ballantine Hall! Enjoy refreshments with faculty and students!

PACE INTERNSHIP PANEL

Monday, Oct. 17, 5:30 PM
IMU State Room East

PACE students who have recently completed internships recently will answer questions about their internship experiences, ranging from Bloomington and Indianapolis to Washington and Chicago. Refreshments will be served. Information from the Career Development Center and the Washington Leadership Program (IU in DC) will be available.

THEMESTER WORKSHOP:

The Side of Peace: Restorative Conflict Resolution in the Israeli-Palestinian Context

Friday, Oct. 21, 6:00-8:45 PM, AND
Saturday, Oct. 22, 9:00 AM-3:00 PM

(Participants must attend both sessions and will be provided with a Friday pizza supper and Saturday lunch.)

Hutton Honors College, 811 E. 7th St.

Space is limited. Registration required.

If you are interested in attending this event, please e-mail aduquain@indiana.edu, indicating you wish to sign up for the "Conflict Resolution Workshop" and include your name, e-mail address, year in school, and field(s) of study. Space is limited so we will let you know by e-mail if a space was available when you reply. When signing up, please make sure you are able to attend the entire program.

<http://www.indiana.edu/~iubhonor/hdextra/fall11/justice.php/>

Sponsored by College of Arts and Sciences, Hutton Honors College, PACE

Students who are currently involved in internship experiences: please send us stories/photos that we can share in future newsletters!

Noteworthy IUB Events

An Evening with
CONGRESSMAN MIKE PENCE

Monday, Oct. 17, 8 PM

Georgian Room, IMU

A chance for students to interact with Congressman Mike Pence, a member of the US House and a candidate for the Republican nomination in next year's gubernatorial race. Presented by IU College Republicans.

Former Secretary of State
MADELINE ALBRIGHT

Wednesday, Nov. 2, 7 PM

IU Auditorium

Advance ticketing for IUB students this week. Tickets will be available to the general public starting Monday, October 17 at 10:00 am. Tickets are free with a limit of 4 per person. Presented by Union Board and Themester at the College of Arts and Sciences.

Other Opportunities

IUB LAW DAY PANEL / Q&A SESSION: "What I Like To See in a Law Application"

Tuesday, Oct. 25, 9:00 - 10:45 AM

Whittenberger Auditorium - IMU.

Insider secrets from Admission Deans on how admission decisions are actually made. Find out how to distinguish yourself from other applicants.

LAW FAIR with over 120 law schools

Tuesday, Oct. 25, 11:00 AM - 3:00 PM

Alumni Hall - IMU

Get material, information, souvenirs. Speak with Admission Deans on any topic, including your qualifications.

hpplc@indiana.edu, 812.855.1873.

<http://www.hpplc.indiana.edu/law/law-lawday.shtml>

EDPOSA (EDUCATION POLICY STUDENT ASSOCIATION)

EDPOSA increases awareness about education policy in Indiana, as well as in the nation. There are bi-weekly brown bag lunch events, as well as many opportunities to listen to speakers on campus. Tony Bennett, Indiana's Superintendent of Public Instruction, will be visiting on Nov. 7.

<http://edposa.wordpress.com/>

THE JOURNEY FELLOWSHIP FOR STUDENTS

The Journey Fellowship will bring together 30 college students from around Indiana who desire to explore career opportunities working with youth. Fellows attend three all-expense-paid retreats focused on personal/professional leadership and career exploration, benefit from executive coaching, have the opportunity to connect with state and national leaders in the youth development field, participate in a 150 hour summer internship and receive a $1,000 individual stipend.

To apply, visit: www.thejourneyonline.org/

Applications accepted Oct. 1 - Dec. 31

AIESEC INDIANA

AIESEC Indiana sends students abroad on international internships established by local committees in the respective countries. They offer internships in four areas: Education, Management (Business), Technology, and Development (NGO work, etc.). These internships range from 6 weeks to 18 months. They are currently looking for students who are willing to leave for this Spring Semester, 2012. They also will be offering summer internships.

aiesecogx123@gmail.com

www.indiana.edu/~aiesec/

Bryan Room, IMU

Office hours: Mon. 12-3 PM, Th. 5-6 PM