

Slavic Research Incentive Plan, 2010–2011

(Approved by SLAV executive committee, JULY 2010, and subject to revision. Clause 2 added SEPT 2010.)

1. Unrestricted conference travel, i.e., automatic reimbursement at following fixed amounts:
 - a. $200/lecturers and visitors
 - b. $400/pre-tenure
 - c. $300 tenured

This is for one trip per academic year. As always, receipts are required.

2. Administrative travel, i.e., travel in departmental service (subject to executive committee approval), at following fixed amounts:
 - a. $200 for administrative function combined with professional activity
 - b. $300 for administrative service by departmental request

3. Specific research requests (excluding travel): informal application required.
$600 maximum award per request, with expectation that normally only one award will be made to any one individual in an academic year.

ALL continuing faculty are eligible to apply, including lecturers, although the primary purposes of these funds is to stimulate productivity of research faculty. The executive committee will advise the chair on how to respond to specific requests. As always, expenses can ONLY be reimbursed on a receipt basis.

4. Incentive/Reward system for all TT faculty, with calculation based on PUBLICATIONS in the previous calendar year FAR, awarded in January of each year. Funds will be transferred into faculty member research accounts, which can be used for travel, purchasing equipment and materials, paying assistants, etc., based on the following schema:

- | | |
|---|--|
| a. solely authored book: | $500–$1000 (depending on quality of press and/or significance of book, as determined by executive committee) |
| b. co-authored book | $300–$600 (depending on quality of press and/or significance of book, as determined by executive committee) |
| c. edited book: | $200 |
| d. coedited book | $150 |
| e. double-blind peer reviewed journal article | $300 (co-authored: $150) |
| f. proceedings/book chapter/other journal article | $200 (co-authored: $100) |

These same guidelines apply for materials that ONLY appear in electronic format.

THESE ARE AMOUNTS FOR TT ASSISTANT PROFESSORS. MULTIPLY BY .75 FOR ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS AND BY .5 FOR FULL PROFESSORS.
