School of Nursing Seal

The Indiana University School of Nursing Seal was adopted in 1970 in observance of the 150th Birthday of the University.

The Inner circle, including its shape, is taken from the seal of Indiana University, adopted in 1841. The open book is symbolic of education. Lux Et Veritas, Latin for the light and truth, is the motto of the University.

A ribbon-design border with the inscription "School of Nursing" surrounds the inner circle and is adapted from the original school pin.

At the bottom of the border is 1914, the year of the opening of the school. The solid border surrounding the School of Nursing Seal, taken from the University Seal, has the inscription "Indianensis Universitatis Sigillum MDCCCXX". The translation is "Seal of Indiana University, 1820", founding year of the University.

School of Nursing Pin

Graduates of the bachelor's program receive School of Nursing pins which share many similarities and serve to bond together Indiana University alumni. In the center of the pin is the seal of Indiana University. An openness exists between the replica of the seal and the outer circle, which designates the School of Nursing and the year that the School of Nursing was founded 1914.

Hooding Ceremony

Academic regalia has a rich history dating back to medieval times. The distinctive long sleeved gown and extended colorful hood were added in the 15th century to distinguish the Master's educated graduate. The cream and crimson hood lining of Indiana University is trimmed by nursing's traditional apricot velvet. Graduate candidates have the hood ceremoniously placed upon them as part of the conferring of the degree recognition. The IU South Bend School of Nursing presents this tradition during the December Nursing Pinning, Hooding and Recognition Ceremony. The graduates wear the earned regalia at the May Commencement Ceremony as part of the academic procession.

Florence Nightingale Pledge

I solemnly pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly to practice my profession faithfully. I will safeguard my clients and the public when health care and safety are at stake. I vow to adhere to the legal and ethical principles of the profession in a competent manner. I devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care. I will do all in my power to elevate the standards of the profession and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping in the practice of my profession.
