

on your own in college

A ONE WEEK EVENING SEMINAR FOR THOSE HEADING FOR COLLEGE

Monday thru Friday, August 12 – 16, 6:30 – 8:30 p.m.

Indiana University at South Bend

Why am I going to college?

Do I have to do my best?

How much will college cost?

What does matriculation, 13 credit hours, and four point average mean?

After college -- then what?

These questions are frequently asked but how often are they fully answered? You now have an opportunity to meet for one week with others--many of whom may be attending the same school as you are planning to attend--and together find the answers to these questions. You will be participating in important discussions on such topics as purpose of college, adjusting to college life, developing effective study habits, taking notes that can be used for review, and learning how to budget your time between things you want to do and things you have to do.

Your discussion leader will be Mr. Charles Welch, Assistant to the Dean of the Junior Division, Indiana University at South Bend. A text, On Your Own In College, will be used in class and will be an excellent reference in college.

Registration: Fee, $10. Fill out the registration blank on the other side and return to the Office of Continuing Education, Indiana University at South Bend, South Bend, Indiana, 46615, with check or money order. Additional registration forms are available by calling 282-2341, Extension 261. Registration may also be completed prior to the first session on Monday, August 12.
