Alumni Reception at the ILF Conference

For all of you attending the Indiana Library Federation conference in Indianapolis in November, please plan to join us at the IU alumni reception. It takes place on Tuesday, November 18, from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m., and we'll meet in the Atrium of the host hotel, Marriott East, at 7202 East 21st Street. You'll find great appetizers and libations, along with a cash bar...and a chance to catch up with your colleagues from all around the State.

Please RSVP to let us know you're coming. Tell your friends! To see who's also attending, check back to our Alumni Events page; click on the ILS Conference Alumni Reception to see the list. We look forward to seeing you there.

St. Joseph County African American History Collection to be Accessible Online

The St. Joseph County African American History Collection, a $10,000 2014 Indiana Memory Digitization Grant-winning project from IU South Bend University Archivist and Associate Librarian, Alison Stankrauff and Joe Sipocz, Manager of Local & Family History Services at the St. Joseph Public Library (and adjunct Q110 instructor at IU South Bend), has been chosen for inclusion in the Indiana Memory database <https://digital.library.in.gov/> and in the Digital Public Library of America: <http://dp.la/>.

The project involves digitizing photographs, documents and newspapers held by the St. Joseph Public Library, IU South Bend Civil Rights Heritage Center, and Franklin D. Schurz Library that tell the story of African Americans in St. Joseph County. "By unifying these collections and making them accessible online, researchers, students, and the general public will be able to easily discover and delve into the history and impact of African Americans in our region," said Dean of Library Services, Vicki Bloom.

The items will also be available via Michiana Memories: <http://michianamemory.sjcp.org/>.

For more information on this project, contact Alison Stankrauff at astankra@iusb.edu
