Staff News

Staff Changes/Farewell at Lilly

Cherry Williams, Curator of Manuscripts at the Lilly Library since 2009, has accepted the position of Director of Distinctive Collections at the University of California, Riverside. Cherry's last day at the Lilly Library will be August 18, 2016. Please join Cherry and her friends and colleagues at a farewell reception on August 11, from 4:00 - 5:30 p.m., in the Slocum Room of the Lilly Library, sponsored by the Friends of the Lilly Library.

With Cherry's departure for her new position, the Lilly Library's curatorial responsibilities for books and manuscripts will be reorganized. Following the examples of other major special collections libraries, curatorial responsibilities for books and manuscripts will now be organized by chronological period, with the nominal dividing line being the year 1800. Erika Dowell, who currently serves as Associate Director and Head of Public Services will take on new duties as Associate Director and Curator of Modern Books and Manuscripts. In addition to continuing to serve as the Lilly Library's Director, I will be the new Curator of Early Books and Manuscripts. Rebecca Baumann, the Lilly Library's Education and Outreach Librarian, will also serve as Interim Head of Public Services. A national search for a permanent Head of Public Services will be launched in the coming months.
