Chelsea Liddell Accepts Position

I am pleased to announce that Chelsea Liddell will join Preservation as the new Binding and Preservation Review Coordinator. Chelsea has worked part-time in Preservation since 2014 while she was completing her Master of Library Science degree here at IU. She brings a wealth of experience to the job, having worked in Bindery Prep, General Collection Conservation, and the Paper Conservation Lab. Chelsea also brings experience in cataloging from an internship in the Lilly Library, and has a BA in East Asian Languages and Cultures and MA in East Asian Studies. Chelsea begins her full time position on September 8.

Michelle Trumbo Leaving Jerome Hall Law Library

I am very sorry to report that Michelle Trumbo, Electronic Services Librarian at the Law Library, has resigned to relocate with her husband to Washington, DC. Michelle began at the Law Library in October 2012 and has been a great addition to our staff. Among her other responsibilities, Michelle has played a major role in our teaching efforts in the Law School, serving as the coordinator of our Advanced Legal Research course at the time of her resignation. In addition to team teaching Advanced Legal Research, Michelle also designed and taught Introduction to American Law for our foreign students in the Law School's first Wintersession and also developed and taught, along with Ashley Ahlbrand, the first online Advanced Legal Research course for the Law School this past summer. As sad as we are to lose Michelle, we are pleased that she will remain in the law librarianship world, having accepted a position at the Law Library of the George Mason School of Law.
