Julie Davis Joins the IU Press

We are very excited to announce that Julie Davis has joined the IU Press team as the Scholarly Marketing and Publicity Manager. Julie is a graduate of Indiana University and has worked for the American Marketing Association and the School of the Art Institute of Chicago. At the Press, she will be developing and implementing marketing programs for the scholarly list. Please join me in welcoming Julie to the Press and Library.

Vera Heitink Retires

After 35 years of service at IU Wells Library, Vera Heitink is retiring. Her last day will be August 16. She began her career at Wells Library in November 1981 as the secretary for Acquisitions. She then moved on to become the Acquisitions Assistant for Collection Development for English and Western European Languages in 1986. She was promoted to the Approval Plan Specialist for Western European material in 1995. Throughout her career in Acquisitions, she has built and maintained excellent rapport with the Libraries' various Western European monograph vendors.

Vera has been active on various libraries social/program committees since she began in 1981.

Her retirement plans include spending more time on gardening, travelling to Europe, and plans to visit Indonesia in the late Fall. We will certainly miss Vera's cheerful spirit and are thankful for her dedication to her work and many years of service to Technical Services. Please join me in extending to her our best wishes for a wonderful retirement!
