

Department of Student Services

Mission Statement

The mission of IU Kokomo's Department of Student Services is to provide services that enhance student learning and contribute to individual personal growth. While the variety of services is limited, all members of the student services staff are diligent in assisting students to resolve problems that arise within the university environment. The student services department also plays an important role in fostering student self-development through sponsored events and activities that complement classroom instruction.