TEDDY BEARS

This performance is sponsored by Build-A-Bear Workshop, Inc.

The teddy bears collected for this performance will be donated to AIDS Assist of Northcentral Indiana and the Center for the Homeless.

The Ernestine M. Raclin School of the Arts at Indiana University South Bend has received a gift from the Georgina Joshi Foundation to renovate the recital hall into a state-of-the-art performance hall. In recognition of the gift, the hall will be named the Louise E. Addicott and Yatish J. Joshi Performance Hall.

The gift supports the vision of Louise Addicott-Joshi to provide young musicians and singers with educational and career development opportunities and support the public performance of music in South Bend.

Louise Addicott and her husband Yatish Joshi established the Georgina Joshi Foundation in 2007 to honor their daughter who was a student in the Jacobs School of Music at Indiana University Bloomington. Georgina sang at the original recital hall at IU South Bend and the Joshi family attended many performances there.

The 224-seat performance hall will be a world class venue for the performances of chamber music, soloists, and small ensembles. The hall will also include state-of-the-art recording equipment for students and faculty.

Construction began in May 2013, and an opening performance is anticipated for Spring 2014.

The IUSB Arts Foundation Board is inviting the community to support the vision of the project through a seat campaign.

A gift of $500 will be recognized with the name of the donor (or someone they want to honor) engraved on a brass plate on the back of any of the seats in the first three rows. A gift of $275 will be recognized with a plate on a seat in the remaining eight rows.

Donor cards are available at the box office. Please ask for one if you are interested in supporting this campaign.
