Intellectual Freedom Round Table Offering an Exciting Preconference for ALA Annual 2007!

Celebrating the Library Bill of Rights

Thursday, June 21, 2007, 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Spend an afternoon with library intellectual freedom activists from around the United States as we celebrate one of our profession's most important documents: The American Library Association's Library Bill of Rights. A panel of speakers who have faced challenges will talk about what the LBOR means to them. Then, there will be an opportunity to participate in facilitated table discussions of the many LBOR interpretations that have been passed by ALA Council over the years.

This program is guaranteed to engage and enthuse participants.

Tickets: $25

To register, just check off Celebrating the Library Bill of Rights on your ALA paper or online form. If you've already registered for the Conference, call 1-800-545-2433 extension 5 to add this preconference to your itinerary. For more information on the American Library Association Annual Conference, please visit www.ala.org
