1. FACULTY/STAFF NEWS

Effective January 20, Diana Wilson accepted the Document Delivery Services Assistant position in Customer and Facilities Services. Diana has worked in a student position in the Library for the past two years. She has a BA in Psychology and is working toward an MLS degree.

2. CONTINUING EDUCATION PROGRAM - REMINDER

On Tuesday, January 27, the BFLC Continuing Education Committee will host a program entitled "The Best Web Site: How Libraries Can Create, Design, Maintain, and Manage a Web Site". The program begins at 1 pm. Moira Smith, Bibliographer for Anthropology, Sociology, Folklore and Women's Studies, will be the first speaker. She will be followed by Jian Lui, Reference. A short break with refreshments should occur at approximately 2:30. After the break Carol Hert, Assistant Professor of Library and Information Science, will conclude the program by addressing management and maintenance issues accompanying a web site. The program will take place in Media Room 174.

The program is open to all and will be videotaped for those unable to attend.

--Juliet Smith, chair, Electronic Services Librarian, IU School of Law Library

6. CALUMET REGIONAL ARCHIVES ANNIVERSARY

"Celebrate in '98" is the theme for the silver anniversary year of IUN's Calumet Regional Archives, located on the library's third floor. Over the past twenty-five years, the Archives has collected, preserved, and made available thousands of historical records documenting the growth and development of Northwest Indiana.

Throughout this year, the Archives will produce exhibits and newsletters highlighting portions of the collection. The first exhibit, presenting an overview of the Archives, is now on display in the lobby of the IUN Library/Conference Center.

7. IU LAW LIBRARY-INDIANAPOLIS AUTHORIZED AS BIBCO PARTICIPANT

The Technical Services Department at the Indiana University School of Law Library, Indianapolis was recently authorized by the Library of Congress Regional & Cooperative Cataloging Division as a BIBCO participant, and has also received OCLC Enhance authorization at the national level. As a BIBCO participant, the law library catalogers can input or upgrade monograph records at the same level of authentication as the Library of Congress. They can also enhance OCLC non-CONSER serial records that have 10 or fewer holdings attached to them. At the time the IU Law School Library was authorized for Program for Cooperative Cataloging participation, only 24 other libraries nationwide were members, and only one of those was a law library (St. Louis University School of Law). Chris Long, Cataloger, and Wendell Johnting, Assistant Director for Technical Services, received training on PCC procedures from David Glenn at the University of Maryland at College Park.

8. 1998 OCLC LIBRARY AND INFORMATION SCIENCE RESEARCH GRANT PROGRAM

OCLC's Office of Research announces the continuation of the Library and Information Science Research Grant (LISRG) Program for 1998. The LISRG program is designed to support research within the library science and information science fields, providing up to a maximum of $10,000 per proposal.

Budgets should indicate (1) details of what is needed to conduct the research; (2) other funding that is being provided by the institution or other grants; and (3) what is needed from OCLC in terms of funding, equipment or other support.

Copies of the OCLC Annual Report and the Annual Review of OCLC Research are available upon request. These OCLC publications as well as the electronic copies of OCLC at a Glance, a program announcement and a cover sheet for proposals are available through the OCLC Home Page:

[<http://www.oclc.org>].

OCLC is committed to encouraging research in the library science and the information science fields; we hope that we will receive a proposal from you. The deadline for submittal is Tuesday, March 31, 1998.
