Webinar Scheduled

TITLE: From Theory to Practice: Applying the ACRL Framework's Lofty Goals to Everyday Teaching

DATE: Friday, November 6, 2015

TIME: 9:30am-11:00am

PLACE: Wells Library E159 (Hazelbaker Hall) or connect online via link below

If you are interested in learning practical applications for the new Framework then please join InULA Programs and Social Committee this morning for "From Theory to Practice: Applying the ACRL Framework's Lofty Goals to Everyday Teaching", a webinar facilitated by Undergraduate Education Librarian Andrea Baer.

Below is the link for the webinar. The recommended browser to use is Chrome.

https://connect.iu.edu/from_theory_to_practice/

This is an interactive workshop. Though this webinar will be available to anyone with Internet access, in order to enable fuller interaction librarians at each campus are encouraged to attend the session with their campus library colleagues. On the Bloomington campus participants can meet in Wells Library E159, where the webinar will be broadcast. Other campuses may wish to reserve a space for webinar viewing.

William Evans Jenkins Award 2016: Call for Nominations

The William Evans Jenkins Award Committee for 2015/16 (Andrea Baer, chair; Cindy Dabney; Nick Homenda; Andrea Morrison; and Chuck Peters) hereby invites you to identify and nominate potential candidates for the 2016 award.

Named for William Evans Jenkins, former Chief Librarian of Indiana University, this award may be presented annually to a current or former librarian on the Bloomington campus, in recognition of their outstanding contributions to the Indiana University Libraries or to the library profession in general. While eligibility for the award is limited to former and current Bloomington campus librarians, nominations may be made by any member of the Indiana University community.

Outstanding Bloomington Library Faculty colleagues deserve our recognition and appreciation. William Evans Jenkins should be remembered for his vision for the Indiana University Libraries and for his commitment to the profession as a whole. By nominating a librarian you admire and respect, you are keeping the memory of William Evans Jenkins alive and inspiring others to perform at the highest level. Nominations for this award may be submitted individually or jointly.

Staff News

David K. Frasier Retires

On November 13, David K. Frasier will retire from his position as Reference Librarian of the Lilly Library. As well as exemplifying the very best qualities of librarianship, Dave is also a successful scholar in the field of popular culture and a valued friend and colleague.

Dave has worked for the IU Libraries for 33 years, beginning in 1982 at the Kinsey Institute, where he was Head of Technical Services from 1984-1988. He spent 21 years as a Reference Librarian at Wells Library, where many of his former colleagues still tell tales of his legendary quips and antics. In 2008, Dave transferred to the Lilly Library where he has been the Reference Librarian and beloved colleague.

Dave has also had brushes with fame after befriending legendary exploitation director Russ Meyer. Dave wrote the definitive bio-bibliography of Meyer (Russ Meyer—The Life and Films) and also completed and edited Meyer's three-volume autobiography, A Clean Breast: The Life and Loves of Russ Meyer. Dave also authored three monumental works of morbid reference: Suicide in the Entertainment Industry, which film director John Waters named as one of his six favorite books; Murder Cases of the Twentieth Century, which was selected by the ALA as an "Outstanding Reference Source" of 1997; and Show Business Homicides.

Every person who has worked closely with Dave over the past 33 years has at least one story to tell about him. He is a legendary character and odd in the best way possible—someone who is a fully-developed, charismatic, unique individual who follows no path but his own. But what is perhaps most memorable about Dave—and what his colleagues at the Lilly Library and all over campus will most miss—is his profound kindness. Please join me in thanking Dave and wishing him a peaceful, happy retirement!
