Rivkah Cooke Resigns

Rivkah Cooke, Head of Acquisitions Accounting, has accepted promotion to a position in the IU Office of Budgetary Administration and Planning, Assistant Director of Business Affairs within Students Services. Her last day in the IUB Libraries is June 27.

Rivkah joined the IUB Libraries as a student assistant and moved through the ranks to become the Head of Acquisitions Accounting in 2014. Her contributions to the Libraries are many and significant. She managed a project to convert the Accounting unit's paper invoice files to an online document retrieval system. She was one of the original members of the Libraries' Diversity Committee that developed the Diversity Strategic Plan and has been involved in a number of diversity initiatives. Rivkah developed a new library materials fund structure that was implemented this fiscal year to align library financial records more closely to the university's financial practices. A supportive colleague to collection managers and technical service staff, she will be missed. Please join me in wishing her much success in her new position and thanking her for her many contributions.

While a faculty member in IU's Department of Slavic and East European Studies, Sara realized she greatly missed the work she did in Yale's Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library as a
