Eighth Annual COMMENCEMENT

*Wednesday
May Fifteenth
Nineteen Hundred
Seventy-Four*

The Star-Spangled Banner

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Hail to Old I.U.

Chorus

Come and join in song together,	Gloriana, Frangipana,
Shout with might and main;	E'er to her be true;
Our beloved Alma Mater,	She's the pride of Indiana,
Sound her praise again.	Hail to old I.U.!

—Joe T. Giles, '94

Auld Lang Syne

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,	For Auld Lang Syne, my dear,
And never brought to mind?	For Auld Lang Syne,
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,	We'll tak' a cup o' kindness yet
And days of Auld Lang Syne?	For Auld Lang Syne!

Commencement Ceremonies

The audience is requested to remain until the conclusion of the ceremonies.

The exercises of the eighth annual Commencement are enacted today at Indiana University at South Bend. The counterpart of the pageantry enacted each year on campuses all over the world, it is the solemn climax and recognition of the graduates' years of study and preparation for responsibility.

To help spectators understand the significance of the ceremony, the following description is furnished:

PROCESSION

Leading the procession is the Grand Marshal bearing the ceremonial Mace emblematic of the authority of the state and University. He is attired in a white brocade gown with panels trimmed in red velvet and a gold I.U. seal. He wears a white brocade cap with gold metallic tassel and a gold satin shoulder sash with gold tassels. The Head Marshals wear black gowns with cream chevrons and panels edged in black and black caps with gold tassels. Other marshals wear satin shoulder sashes of various colors and designs.

Led by the marshals, the candidates march behind the identification banners of the respective divisions which recommended them for their degrees. They are:

- Division of Arts and Sciences
- Division of Business
- Division of Dental Hygiene
- Division of Education
- Division of Music
- Division of Allied Health Sciences
- Division of General and Technical Studies
- School of Public and Environmental Affairs

As the candidates reach their seats, the members of the faculties of Indiana University at South Bend march in, wearing the colorful hoods of the colleges and universities from which they were graduated. The climax of the processional is the platform party which includes a Trustee of the University, Deans and other personnel of the University, and finally the President of the University. As his badge of office, the President wears a jewel, emblematic of the history of the state and of the University.

A Trustee of the University can be identified by his red gown which has red velvet panels and cream velvet chevrons on the sleeves and a cream seal of the University. He wears a black cap with a gold metallic tassel.

ACADEMIC ATTIRE

All candidates for degrees and those who hold these degrees, including University officials and faculty and visiting dignitaries, are attired in traditional cap and gown. The basic color for most caps and gowns is formal black, except for associate degree candidates, who wear gray caps and gowns. However, recipients of different degrees wear distinctive tassels on their caps (called mortarboards) and hoods of various hues draped down the backs of their gowns.

CAPS

Candidates for the bachelor's, master's, and associate's degrees wear the regulation caps with the tassels appropriate to the division from which they are being graduated. The authorized tassels are:

- Arts and Sciences—White
- Business—Drab
- Dental Hygiene—Lilac
- Education—Light Blue
- Music—Pink
- Allied Health—Kelly Green
- General and Technical Studies—Red and White
- Public and Environmental Affairs—Peacock Blue

GOWNS

The bachelor's and associate's gowns have a closed front and long, pointed, open sleeves. The master's gown has an open front with extremely long, closed sleeves, from which the arms protrude through a slit at the elbow; the end of the sleeve is square, with an arc of a circle just above the bottom. The doctor's gown is an open-front garment with voluminous bell-shaped sleeves on which appear three velvet bars (usually black, but sometimes blue for philosophy or green for medicine).

HOODS

The bachelor's hood is rather short with a narrow velvet edging in the color matching the tassels and a lining in the color or colors of the institution—crimson at Indiana. The bachelor's hood is not worn by candidates for this degree, except by those upon whom the baccalaureate degree has previously been conferred.

The master's hood is considerably longer, has a wider velvet edging, and exposes more of the lining.

The doctor's hood is easily recognized by the width of the velvet edging, the wide panels at either side, the greater length, and the full exposure of the lining. The colors of the edging most frequently seen are blue for philosophy, green for medicine, and purple for laws; the colors for the honorary doctor's degrees are purple for laws, white for letters, and golden yellow for science.

HONORS

Candidates who have been tentatively awarded honors in general scholarship are distinguished by cream and crimson fourragères, which are looped cords worn from the left shoulder. Those with crimson shoulder bar and cream and crimson tassels indicate honors, while high honors are represented by those with cream shoulder bar and cream tassels. Honors and high honors are awarded by vote of the various faculties, and the fourragères are provided by the University. The appropriate recognition is recorded on the individual's diploma as a permanent testimonial of his achievement.

SYMBOLS

Traditional in all formal ceremonies of Indiana University are the Mace, symbol of authority; the Jewel of Office, emblematic of the Office of the President; and the Collar of the Jewel of Office. The first is carried in the academic procession by the Grand Marshal, and the last two are worn by the President. In design and ornamentation they represent significant events in the history of the state of Indiana and of the University.

These treasured symbols were presented to the University by its chapters of the Miami Triad in celebrating their centennials. The Jewel of Office was presented by Beta Theta Pi in 1945; the Mace by Phi Delta Theta in 1949; and the Collar of the Jewel of Office by Sigma Chi in 1958.

Honorary Degree Recipient

JESSE L. DICKINSON

DOCTOR OF LAWS

Most men settle for excellence in one field. Jesse L. Dickinson can claim outstanding careers in three: music, politics, and public administration. This native of Nebraska settled in South Bend in 1928, after traveling for three years as vocal and instrumental soloist with the Redpath Chautauquas and Lyceum Bureau. The community quickly came to know him as a recreation administrator, choral director, and businessman.

In the 1950's, the entire state grew to know him through his distinguished and skillful service in the Indiana General Assembly, where he spent six terms in the House and two in the Senate. As a lawmaker, he was exceptionally adept at the art of compromise, the cornerstone of the democratic system. Champion of the disadvantaged, the incarcerated, and the stigmatized, he was responsible for reforms in the state's penal and mental health care systems, and instrumental in establishing the Indiana Youth Camp and the State Commission on the Aging and Aged. He is today, even in retirement, chairman of the Regional Mental Health Planning Commission. He has served as chairman of both the Indiana State Advisory Committee of the U. S. Commission on Civil Rights and the Indiana Civil Rights Commission.

As executive director and secretary-treasurer of the Housing Authority of South Bend in the 1960's, he was responsible for planning, construction, and management of South Bend's $15 million low-rent public housing program. He is a past president of the St. Joseph County Mental Health Association, a past president of the Board of Directors of the Urban League of South Bend and St. Joseph County, an organizer of the local chapter of the NAACP, the holder of a variety of voluntary positions with the United Way of St. Joseph County, a director of the First Bank and Trust Co. of South Bend, and a Sagamore of the Wabash by proclamation of former Governor George Craig.

Through his strong character and deep concern for others, Mr. Dickinson has left indelible marks on his community and his state.

Indiana University at South Bend

In 1922, Indiana University scheduled its first classes in the South Bend area, primarily to help local teachers meet licensing requirements. During the depression of the 1930's, however, Indiana University recognized the need to provide for more complete higher education opportunities in home communities; as a result, the South Bend-Mishawaka Extension Center was established in 1933 to offer a basic two-year program. Administrative offices were located in Central High School, and classes were offered during late afternoon and evening hours in the school and in the downtown YWCA.

Following a decline in attendance during the war years, returning veterans contributed to a post-war enrollment rise which launched the Center into a major period of growth. In the late 1950's, a site adjacent to the St. Joseph River in South Bend was acquired for a new campus with the help of South Bend officials, organizations, and individuals.

In 1961, the move was made into the first new facility, Northside Hall. A second building was acquired in 1966, and a third structure was completed in 1969. A major addition to Northside Hall opened in 1972.

During the 1960's, the Center experienced a major period of development, emerging as a comprehensive, degree-granting institution. In 1963, it became a regional campus, and soon afterward the first four-year degree programs were authorized. In 1967, the first seniors to graduate from the South Bend campus received their degrees. The following year, the campus became Indiana University at South Bend, a title indicating another new level in its academic development and status within the Indiana University system.
