CONNECTIONS: AN EXHIBITION OF COLLABORATIVE DESIGN

April 10 to May 6, 2006

Lilly Library Lounge

This exhibit explores the collaborative efforts of bookmakers, designers, artists, printers, publishers and others in producing some of the beautiful and well-made books from the Lilly Library's collection. These include French artist books, limited editions and private press books from some of the best designers of the 20th Century. Nathan Walton, a graduate student in graphic design, has curated the exhibit as part of his MFA thesis project.

Some of the titles on exhibit are fine press editions of The Odyssey of Homer, Melville's Moby Dick, the Holy Bible, Shakespeare's Hamlet, and Aristophanes' play Lysistrata with illustrations by Pablo Picasso. A reception and talk by Nathan Walton will be held in the Lounge on Thursday, April 13 at 5:00 pm. It is free and open to the public.
