5. RARE AND BEAUTIFUL LIBRARY EXHIBIT

The IUPUI University Library Ruth Lilly Special Collections and Archives announces the opening of its latest exhibit,

RARE AND BEAUTIFUL: The Books of the Ruth Lilly Special Collections. This exhibit showcases five different collections of books, including the Mrs. Evan Noyes Collection of Children's Books, the Dr. John E. Jesseph Collection of Civil War Books, the Leo and Mary Solt English History Collection, the Robert A. Woods Masonic Collection, and the St. Meinrad Seminary Theology Collection. Highlights of the exhibit include the oldest book in the IUPUI Libraries, the Beati Ivstini Philosophi of St. Justin Martyr, which dates to 1554, and a copy of the world's smallest Bible, measuring only 55mm tall. Also on display are examples of fine illustration and binding as well as a brief look at the factors which contribute to a book being classified as rare. The exhibit will be on view through late August. The Ruth Lilly Special Collections and Archives are located in Room 0133 on the Lower Level of the IUPUI University Library, 755 West Michigan Street. Exhibit hours are Monday, Thursday and Friday 8 AM to 5 PM, Tuesday and Wednesday 8 AM to 8 PM, and Saturday 8 AM to noon. For more information about the exhibit or the collections, call (317) 274-0464 🔗.

7. DON'T FORGET TO USE THE MASTER CALENDAR!

There is a master calendar in Libraries' Human Resources where we list most meetings and training sessions that have been widely announced. Suzann Easter (sleaster) maintains this calendar, and you can let her know if you want something listed. If you're scheduling a meeting and want to avoid conflicts, consulting the master calendar may help.
