IULFC Meeting via videoconference system

The first Indiana University Library Faculty Council (IULFC) meeting of the 2010-2011 Academic year is planned for Friday, November 5, 2010- 1:30 pm – 3:30 pm EDT, put it on your calendars and plan to attend if possible. This is your opportunity to get the latest updates on what is going on around the IU Library system – on all campuses and all libraries. And you do not have to travel far- just to the videoconferencing room set up on your campus! A quorum of recently appointed representatives and officers is required, in order for the Council to conduct the required selection of a Secretary-elect and several standing committee Liaisons at this first meeting of the year. The IULFC meetings are open to all IU Librarians and provide an opportunity for cross campus communication.

Video conference connections available at each campus (Video Bridge 106)

In rooms:

IUB : Wells Library Room 043

IUPUI : University Library UL 2115 E

IUPUC: TBA

IUE : Hayes Hall 280

IPFW: Helmke Library LB 419

IUK: Kokomo KO 111

IUN: Hawthorn Hall 318

IUSB: NS 075 B

IUSE: Hillside Hall 105

See the IULFC web site for more information, at www.indiana.edu/~iulfc/ : lists of officers, representatives, the draft agenda for the meeting, the annual reports of the Standing Committees and issues for discussion ,etc. The Officers, representatives, alternates and some chairs, and liaisons have been appointed, but a few positions remain to be selected. So if you are looking for an excellent service opportunity to participate in for your annual report- and want to serve your fellow IU librarians in our cross campus faculty council, come to the “meeting”. If you are a new hire, looking for a mentor, you can learn about the mentoring program available through the IULFC, and so much more..

Hope to see you at the meeting (via teleconferencing),

MLA's Fall Educational Webcast: ABC's of E-Books

The Indiana University School of Dentistry Library will host MLA's 2010 Fall Educational Webcast entitled: "ABCs of E-books: Strategies for the Medical Library"

The program's goal is to familiarize information professionals with electronic books and the associated collection management issues related to various platforms, pricing models, licensing agreements, term of ownership, resource management and access methods so that they have the knowledge to make informed decisions which will best serve their constituents.

The program's specific objectives are:

Provide an overview of electronic books management in the health sciences library environment

Highlight considerations to be made in the purchase of e-books, such as choosing a platform; individual titles versus packages; licensing issues; pricing models; terms of ownership; and site license versus concurrent users, and offer a discussion of related management issues for e-book collections, such as cataloging, providing subject lists and title lists, offering federated searching, and collecting usage statistics

Date: November 10, 2010

Time: 2:00 p.m. – 3:30 pm Eastern Time

Place: IUPUI University Library, Conference Room 1126

Participants will receive 1.5 MLA CE contact hours

Please email Jan Cox (jcox2@iupui.edu) if you are planning to attend this webcast by Noon on Monday, November 8, 2010.

The sponsorship of this webcast site has been funded in whole or in part with Federal funds from the National Library of Medicine, National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services, under Contract No. NLM-N01-LM-6-3503 with the University of Illinois at Chicago.

Metadata Discussion Group Meeting

The Metadata Discussion Group is an informal meet-up for individuals interested in metadata issues. The group meets monthly to discuss an article relating to a current metadata topic. The group has no formal "membership" – discussions are open to anyone from the Libraries, SLIS, or elsewhere on campus who is interested in the topic. Here are the details for our next meeting:

Date: Thursday November 11, 2010

Time: 9:30-10:30 AM

Place: Wells Library Staff Lounge, 3rd floor East tower

Article to discuss: Bowen, Jennifer. "Moving Library Metadata toward Linked Data: Opportunities Provided by the eXtensible Catalog." In _Proceedings of the International Conference on Dublin Core and Metadata Applications_, edited by Diane I. Hillman and Michael Lauruhn, 44-59. Dublin Core Metadata Initiative, Pittsburgh, October 20-22, 2010. Available online at <http://dcpapers.dublincore.org/ojs/pubs/article/view/1010/979>.

Hope to see you there!

William Evans Jenkins Award 2011: Call For Nominations

The William Evans Jenkins Award 2011 Committee hereby invites you to identify and nominate potential candidates for the 2011 award.

Named for William Evans Jenkins, former Chief Librarian of Indiana University, this award may be presented annually to a current or former librarian on the Bloomington campus, in recognition of their outstanding contributions to the Indiana University Libraries or to the library profession in general. While eligibility for the award is limited to former and current Bloomington campus librarians, nominations may be made by any member of the Indiana University community.

Outstanding BLF colleagues deserve our recognition and appreciation. William Evans Jenkins should be remembered for his vision for the Indiana University Libraries and for his commitment to the profession as a whole. By nominating a librarian you admire and respect, you are keeping the memory of William Evans Jenkins alive and inspiring others to perform at the highest level. Nominations for this award may be submitted individually or jointly.

Bradford family papers, 1831-1941, bulk 1880-1935, Collection C331: Joseph Bradford and his brother-in-law, Joseph Campbell, began acquiring land in Martinsville, Indiana, in 1865. The Bradford Sand Mining Company was founded by Joseph's son, Perry Bradford, in 1877 in Morgan County, Indiana. The family business was passed on to Albert and John Bradford in the early 1900s. It remained in the family until 1941 when John Bradford deeded 900 acres of the Bradford property to Indiana University. This property is currently known as the Bradford Woods. The Bradford family papers span 1831-1941 and consist of various financial and business records related to their property, as well as documentation of family history and family correspondence. The correspondence primarily dates from 1898 and consists largely of letters written to the Bradfords by Eliza (Bradford) and husband Dr. Grant Monical from Camp George in Georgia and later Cuba where Grant was a Captain in the Spanish-American War.
