

Duties

The Budgetary Affairs Committee shall act as a representative of the Council in offering to the Provost and to the Vice President and CFO its continuing advice and criticism on all aspects of the Bloomington Campus budgetary policy and the allocation of the Bloomington Campus financial resources, especially those proposed allocations and re-allocations of financial resources that have bearing on the economic well-being of the faculty and academic staff. Among others, the committee's responsibilities shall include:

- i. Considering the relative allocations of the University's resources with respect to new programs and significant changes in existing programs
- ii. Considering the setting of priorities with regard to capital outlays.
- iii. Considering the setting of general faculty salary policies.

Salary Minima

The charge to the Budgetary Affairs Committee to set Faculty Salary Minimums was adopted by the Bloomington Faculty Council in 1974:

A minimum salary policy should be established for each academic rank. The minimum amounts in each rank are to be determined jointly by the Bloomington Campus Administration and the Budgetary Affairs Committee of the Bloomington Faculty Council and are to be reviewed and/or readjusted annually.
