New Course Requests

L539 – Language Foundations for ESL/EFL Teachers 1-3 cr hrs IUB/IUPUI

The aims of the class are to provide teachers with an understanding of areas in the English Language that could be problematic to English Language Learners (ELLs), and to assist teachers in modifying instruction to address the problems.

L540 – ESL/EFL Instruction and Assessment Approaches 3-9 cr hrs IUB/IUPUI

This course provides an overview of various approaches to instruction and assessment that incorporates current thinking in the field. Sheltered instruction and content-based models are examples of the instruction models that will be discussed. Assessment models will include, among others, examples of alternative and authentic forms of assessment.

L541 – Writing Instruction for TESL Teachers 1-3 cr hrs IUB/IUPUI
This class will study the current trends and issues in the teaching of writing to EFL/ESL learners. We will focus on the development and evaluation of techniques and materials for classroom instruction, emphasizing the analysis of student writing and troubleshooting common problems second language learners encounter.

Course Change Request
