Communications Committee

Spring Business Report, 2005

Suzanne Mudge, co-chair, with Emily Okada, of the Communications Committee reported that there was no activity for the committee this year.

The co-chairs met once and planned to convene a committee meeting to: 1) discuss feasibility and determine interest on the part of InULA members for a revival of InULA Notes; 2) clarify who administers the InULA listserv and website; and 3) document how the listserv and website duties are passed on from year to year to help improve continuity and currency of these services.

The committee did not meet, however, and the co-chairs volunteered to co-chair again in 2005/06 to complete these goals.
