STAFF NEWS

Grace Jackson-Brown, Associate Librarian, Head, African American Cultural Center Library (IU Bloomington), and African American Studies Bibliographer, has been granted a half-time leave, September 5, 2000-May 31, 2001. During her leave, Grace will complete the writing of her dissertation for her Ph.D. in Journalism.

*I am pleased to announce that effective September 1, 2000, Joel Silver has been named interim director of the Lilly Library.

Joel has a long history with the Lilly Library, where he has held the positions of head of reader services, head of public services, and curator of books. From 1975 to 1983, Joel worked in the antiquarian book trade. He holds a bachelor's degree in English from the University of California, Los Angeles, a law degree from Whittier College, and a master's degree in library science from Indiana University.

Joel has written extensively about rare books, book collecting, and the history of the book trade. As an adjunct professor, he has received two Teaching Recognition Awards from IU's School of Library and Information Science.

Please join me in welcoming him to the position.

--Suzanne Thorin, Ruth Lilly University Dean of University Libraries

*The William & Gayle Cook Music Library is pleased to welcome Teri Herron as Library Office and Acquisitions Supervisor, beginning September 5. Teri has degrees in voice from both Simpson College in Iowa, and the University of Houston, and has been a member of the studio faculty at Simpson College. She has also worked in both music libraries and administrative offices at these institutions. Most recently she has been working here in Bloomington at Insight Communications.

LIBRARY EVENTS

IUPUI University Library Features Special Collection Exhibit

The exhibit, Fund Raising Publications: Another Way to Study History, was recently put on display in the Joseph and Matthew Payton Philanthropic Studies Library of the IUPUI University Library. The philanthropic manuscript collections held by the Library's Special Collections and Archives are generally used to study philanthropy in the United States, but these materials have broader applications.

Fund Raising Publications: Another Way to Study History brings specific focus to publications issued during fund raising campaigns in the twentieth century and how they reflect the events and conditions of the times in which they were published and offer clues into the attitudes of the people who wrote and received them. The exhibit covers the period from the 1920s through the 1980s and targets the Great Depression, World War II, the Cold War, economic development, social issues, and hospitals and healthcare. The exhibit is on display through November 2000 in the Joseph and Matthew Payton Philanthropic Studies Library, room UL 2110, on Level Two of the IUPUI University Library, 755 West Michigan Street. The exhibit may be viewed during the Library's regular hours of operation. For further information, please call University Library Special Collections and Archives at (317) 274_0464 or send an e_mail message to speccoll@iupui.edu.

CALENDAR

*Master Calendar

DON'T FORGET TO USE THE LIBRARY MASTER CALENDAR!

There is a master calendar in Libraries Human Resources where we list meetings, training sessions, and events that have been widely announced. If you are scheduling a meeting, event, etc., it is essential that you add this information to the calendar and check for conflicts. The master calendar is located in the Libraries Human Resources Office and on our web page at <http://www.indiana.edu/~libpers/master2000.html>. It is now also in the Public Folders of Outlook! You will only be able to view the calendar so if there is anything that you want to change or add to it, please send Suzann Westerfield (sleaster@indiana.edu or 5-5988) the information. It then will be put on the Outlook calendar for you. In order to view the calendar, scroll down your Outlook folder list to "Public Folders". Keep opening folders until you come to "All Public Folders", "Departments", "BL-Library", "BL-Master Calendar". Once you find it, you can make a shortcut by adding it to the Outlook bar on the left side, by clicking on it and dragging it over to that bar. Again, if you have any questions or would like to add something to the calendar, contact Suzann Westerfield.
