No. 22 -- 1971

1. Resignation: Dean Risler has announced the resignation of Fawzi A. Salem, Business Administration, from the faculty of IUSB, effective with the second semester of the current academic year.

2. Towaway: The South Bend Police Department has been following through on plans to tow away cars parked illegally in the no-parking zone in front of Northside Hall on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday of this week, in order to accommodate buses bringing Model Cities children to special performances of The Land of the Dragon.

3. Drop-outs: Two programs dealing with school drop-outs will be held the next two Mondays, March 1 and 8, at IUSB, sponsored by the Division of Education and the educational-sociology class in graduate education taught by Helen A. Archibald.

   On March 1, Dr. Grace P. Husted, Sociology, and Dr. Gerald O. Dudley, Education, will present the program. Dr. Husted will discuss her doctoral dissertation, which involved a national study of drop-outs. Dr. Dudley will report on drop-out prediction studies he conducted in the office of the Indiana Superintendent of Public Instruction.

   On March 8, four Central Junior High School teachers (Michael Jackson, Mrs. Barbara Bolden, Corinne Kurcz, and Barbara Schafer) will discuss a project sponsored by the South Bend Community School Corp. and the Model Cities program to keep potential drop-outs in the classroom.

   Both programs start at 7:30 p.m. The site of the March 1 meeting will be announced. The March 8 meeting will be held in the faculty lounge.*

4. Lecture: Dr. Nathan Wright, Jr., who will lecture at 8:15 p.m. Thursday in the auditorium, holds five university degrees, including two from Harvard. The professor of urban affairs and chairman of the Afro-American Studies Department at State University of New York in Albany was nominated for a Pulitzer Prize for his book, "Let's Work Together." He is the author of five other books, two of which have won awards.

   Dr. Wright will discuss "Separatism vs. Integration, Genocide, and Black Studies." His visit here is sponsored by the IUSB Afro-American Society and Student Government.

*Note: The March 1 meeting will be held in the auditorium.

5. ROTC Visitor: Eugene E. Love, director of the IUSB University Division, announces that Col. Wilbur Stevens, Military Coordinator for the ROTC Program at I.U.-Bloomington, will be on this campus and available to talk with interested students regarding policies pertaining to student deferment and the ROTC program. He will be available from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Monday, March 1, in Room N120.

6. Spring Science Workshop: Dr. Hansom P. Baptiste, Jr., Education, has been invited to present the philosophy section of the program at a state Spring Science Workshop. He will attend a planning and training conference at McCormick's Creek State Park, Spencer, Ind., Friday and Saturday. The conference will be conducted by State Science Consultant Jerry M. Colglazier to plan workshops on "Structuring Science Learning for Relevance."

7. Legislative List: Dr. Roy E. Schreiber, History, calls attention to a list of bills before the current Indiana General Assembly which may be of interest to the IUSB community. The list is posted on the bulletin board in the faculty lounge.

8. Budget and Aid: Larry F. McDaniel, Financial Aids, calls attention to an article about the President's budget for higher education in 1972, and how it will affect financial aid, in The Chronicle of Higher Education for February 1.
