KOKOMO, Ind. – Indiana University Kokomo Vice Chancellor Penny Lee announces the appointment of Cameron Mayhill as the director of development for the Office of Advancement. Mayhill began his position on Wednesday, June 1.

“I am so excited to join the Indiana University Kokomo family,” Mayhill said. “It fulfills so many of my dreams to be able to serve the region where I grew up.”

As director of development, Mayhill will play an integral role in the philanthropic and outreach efforts of IU Kokomo. This position provides leadership and direction for private gift support and development.

“We are pleased to welcome Cameron to our Advancement team at Indiana University Kokomo,” said Penny Lee, vice chancellor for advancement “He brings with him a background in development and an enthusiasm that will support our efforts to transform north central Indiana.”

A native of Monticello, Indiana, Mayhill has spent the last 10 years serving the global community through philanthropic efforts. He has worked to fund raise and provide project management services for non-profits in more than 25 countries, which provide healthcare, education, orphan, nutrition and spiritual care to those in need. He is a graduate of Purdue University.

Indiana University Kokomo serves north central Indiana.
