Digital Library Brown Bag Series

TITLE: Development of a Participatory Interactive Documentary: The Vietnam War from All Sides

PRESENTER: Ron Osgood, The Media School

DATE: Wednesday, February 10, 2016

TIME: 12:00pm-1:00pm

PLACE: Wells Library, E159 (Hazelbaker Hall)

"The Vietnam War/American War: Stories from All Sides" is a transmedia project that includes a PBS style documentary and participatory website. Initially funded through an IU New Frontiers Grant, currently more than 135 oral history film interviews have been recorded with veterans and marginalized individuals from all sides of the war. More than 40 of these interviews were recorded in Vietnam with our former enemy.

This presentation will concentrate on the development of the project, with emphasis on the prototype website. The website includes a playlist feature that allows users to assemble their own movie sequences based on topic, geographic location, time period or name searches.

Julieann V. Nilson Scholarship

The Indiana University Librarians Association (InULA) is now accepting applications for the Julieann V. Nilson Scholarship. Any new or continuing full-time or part-time student in the MLS or MIS degree program of the Indiana University Department of Information and Library Science (DILS) at either IUB or IUPUI is eligible to apply. The scholarship is intended to encourage and reward the potential for excellence in the library and information science profession.

The deadline for submitting an application is March 10, 2016. Further information about the scholarship, including the application form, is available at http://www.indiana.edu/~inula/wp_2012/scholarships/

We will be awarding two $1500 scholarships this year.

Please submit your application form and letter(s) of reference electronically to Sherri Michaels, Chair of the InULA Scholarships and Grants Committee.

Proposals for 2016 Statewide Libraries Day

The planning committee invites presentation proposals for the 2016 Statewide Libraries Day. This year Statewide Libraries Day will focus on Innovations and Transformations! Presentations will be categorized under three tracks:

- Innovations and Research: Programs included in this track will highlight projects and research that aim to improve the processes and services that make IU Libraries great! Some examples are: Collaborative projects with faculty and staff outside the library; new workflow processes; subject research; library science related research; and innovative programming in our libraries.
- Project Management: Programs included in this track will focus on improving participants' skills related to project design, implementation and outcomes. Some examples are: Making project management tools work for you; pitching your project to leadership; promoting your project; and evaluating the results.
- Research Design: Programs included in this track will focus on improving participants' research design and publication skills. Some examples are: Developing a research plan; grant writing; choosing the right publication for your work; and combining open access and your research.

Staff News

Jasmine Burns Accepts Position as Interim Head of the Fine Arts Library

I am happy to announce that effective February 1 Jasmine Burns, Image Technologies and Visual Literacy Librarian, is the Interim Head of the Fine Arts Library. I appreciate her willingness to take on the additional responsibilities that this position entails. With a strong and knowledgeable library staff, including a dedicated team of students, we can look forward to a smooth transition and continued stellar performance from the Fine Arts Library.

Suzanne Mudge Retires

After over 20 years of service to the Archives of Traditional Music (ATM), Suzanne Mudge has retired. Her last day in the office was January 29, 2016. Suzanne was the librarian responsible for cataloging, reference, and oversight of the ATM Listening Library, providing a great deal of assistance to researchers from all over the globe. She has been recognized in the acknowledgments sections of countless books for her dedication to finding that exact bit of information that changed the face of a researcher's work, and has often been published herself. She has served as an educator, mentor and friend to so many students in librarianship, music, folklore, and ethnomusicology, and as a most valued colleague to everyone with whom she has ever worked. Suzanne is an advocate and activist for many causes, all with a great sense of humor and eternally optimistic view of life and libraries. On behalf of both her students and colleagues, I say with a full heart that she will truly be missed.
