

REFLECTIONS ON THE CREATIVE PROCESS

Fine Arts

faculty from every campus of the Indiana University System will present a series of lectures at Indiana University South Bend. Twelve faculty will each present two lectures.

In the first lecture, to be delivered on Thursday evenings, all presenters will use slides of their own creative work in speaking about the creative process.

In the second lecture, to be delivered on Friday mornings, presenters will speak on a variety of issues from the perspective of the artist teacher in the university setting.
