

Advertisement Blurb

Make your own scarecrow

Russiaville — Show off your craft skills while supporting the IU Kokomo Staff Council. The organization's build your own Scarecrow will take place Saturday October 21st with a rain date of October 28th. For $8, you can get a variety of colorful material and accessories, the assistance of volunteers, and the satisfaction of seeing your final product. All proceeds benefit the IU Kokomo Staff council, which raises money for student scholarships and activities.

The event is at Farlows Orchard, 6850 West 250 South, Russiaville (765) 883-7028.

Items we will need:

- Hay – Bobbie Johnson may be able to provide
 - Old clothes, pants, long sleeve shirts, ties, hats etc. – Good Will, Salvation Army
 - Old washed panty hose – email to staff council
 - Long tables to assemble – Cathy Archer has two tables
 - Cut out felt for mouth and eyes – purchase at Joanne Fabrics already cut out
 - Scissors – provided by council
 - Glue – provided by council
 - Twine to tie off arms and legs – provided by council
 - Our IU Kokomo Banner – provided by campus
-
1. Kathy will go out to the Farlow Orchard this weekend and meet with the owner regarding space.
 2. Cathy will call Good Will and Salvation Army to see if they have clothing to donate.
 3. Cathy will put an email out to council asking for clean/washed panty hose.
 4. Kathy will make up flyers to pass out thru child care and Marilyn Skinner.