IU Kokomo student artwork showcased in Art Gallery exhibition

KOKOMO, Ind. — Indiana University Kokomo celebrates its student artists, in the annual Student Art Exhibition, opening Wednesday, April 9.

The show includes more than 30 pieces of physical artwork, plus several digital and video works projected on gallery walls.

“This is our once-a-year opportunity to showcase what our students have been creating and researching for the past two semesters,” said Susan Skoczen, gallery director. “Any student who has taken an art class has the opportunity to be chosen to exhibit, not just our art majors.”

Faculty members review all submissions, selecting the best work for the exhibition. Artwork includes all types of media, from traditional drawing, painting, and design, to more conceptual printmaking and sculpture.

The show opens with a reception at 4 p.m. Wednesday, and continues through April 26 in the Art Gallery, in Upper Alumni Hall. Admission and parking are free. Gallery hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Wednesdays, and noon to 4 p.m. Saturdays.
