About the Artists

One of America's most distinguished and sought after chamber ensembles, the Chester String Quartet has been called "one of the best and brightest of the country's young string quartets" by the Boston Globe. Their engaging style and deep sense of musical commitment have brought them raves from audiences and critics throughout the United States. The Chester Quartet's interpretations have also led to top prizes at international quartet competitions in Munich, Germany, Portsmouth, England and at Chicago's Discovery Competition.

Recording artists for the Koch International Classics label, the Chester Quartet recently released their debut CD which received critical acclaim from publications including Fanfare Magazine and the Los Angeles Times. The Quartet has given numerous performances at Lincoln Center's Alice Tully Hall with the New York Chamber Ensemble and a performance with several noted jazz artists at Carnegie Recital Hall. They have appeared frequently on both radio and television, presented the entire Beethoven quartet cycle, commissioned and performed new works and have maintained a commitment to playing and recording lesser known works in the chamber music repertoire.

The Chester maintains a busy summer performance and teaching schedule, having appeared at such prestigious festivals as Newport, Aspen, Grand Tetons, Music Mountain, Cape May, and South Mountain. They have joined in concert with many international solo artists and chamber musicians, previously recorded for the CRI, Stolat and Pantheon labels, and have been heard numerous times on National Public Radio, the BBC, and German State Radio. Founded at the Eastman School of Music, the Chester is currently Quartet-in-Residence at Indiana University South Bend where its members are all full-time faculty.

The use of recording or photographic devices in a concert in any auditorium of IUSB is forbidden. Eating, drinking or smoking at such events is prohibited. Attendance by children under the age of responsible behavior is discouraged.
