Open Enrollment envelopes should have been delivered to you this week. These packets are also available online. You have plenty of time to look over your packets and ask questions. Short, narrated descriptive presentations are available to watch for those with general questions. These presentations, or "briefs," discuss features of the different plans, like which preventative services are completely covered. Further assistance can be found on the Human Resources website. Alternately, you can also email enews@iu.edu. Be sure to mark your calendars -- the deadline for Open Enrollment in November 16, 2012.

Blacklight in Beta Introductory/Training Sessions

On Monday, November 5 and Tuesday, November 20, the IUL Discovery Layer Implementation Task Force will offer an introductory/training session on the new IUCAT discovery layer interface, Blacklight (<http://beta.iucat.iu.edu/>)

These one hour sessions will provide an overview of the interface, currently anticipated to go live later in the fall, as well as demonstrate search techniques and search result management. More advanced training will be offered in the future.

IUL Librarians are encouraged to attend one of the two sessions in person, or participate via Breeze, to familiarize themselves with

William Evans Jenkins Award 2013: Call for Nominations

The William Evans Jenkins Award 2013 Committee hereby invites you to identify and nominate potential candidates for the 2013 award.

Named for William Evans Jenkins, former Chief Librarian of Indiana University, this award may be presented annually to a current or former librarian on the Bloomington campus, in recognition of their outstanding contributions to the Indiana University Libraries or to the library profession in general. While eligibility for the award is limited to former and current Bloomington campus librarians, nominations may be made by any member of the Indiana University community.

Outstanding Bloomington Library Faculty colleagues deserve our recognition and appreciation. William Evans Jenkins should be remembered for his vision for the Indiana University Libraries and his commitment to the profession as a whole. By nominating a librarian you admire and respect, you are keeping the memory of William Evans Jenkins alive and inspiring others to perform at the highest level. Nominations for this award may be submitted individually or jointly.

How to submit:

1. An "intent to nominate" message must be sent to Betty Davis (betdavis@indiana.edu) by November 30, 2012.

2. Documentation on the intranet:

- The Jenkins Award Nomination form - <http://www.libraries.iub.edu/index.php?pagelid=8597>

Last Chance: Registration for the Fall 2012 IOLUG Conference: The Evolving Librarian!

Don't wait, register now! This is the last week to register for the fall 2012 IOLUG Conference: The Evolving Librarian!

NOTE: Early registration ends Oct. 29. Registration is not complete until payment has been received. Lunch is not guaranteed with onsite registration.

Top five reasons to register for the IOLUG 2012 fall conference:

1. We have a great program that will introduce you to some of the newest technologies being used in libraries
2. You will receive five of those all important TLEUs
3. Opportunity to network with librarians from around the state
4. You could win a shiny new iPad, Kindle, or a Nexus tablet!
5. It's an affordable full day conference

Come learn how technology is changing the role of libraries and librarians. You will hear presentations on how libraries are redesigning their physical and online spaces to better meet the needs of users. Whether you want to know more about virtual reference, social media, or mobile apps, there will be sessions of interest to you. You'll be sure to have tons of great ideas to take back to you library and implement right away!

When: November 2, 2012

Where: Indiana Wesleyan University North, Indianapolis

alternatives for providing virtual reference services. While there are several chat software programs available, choosing the right software for your library can be challenging. The members of this panel have all taken different approaches to virtual reference service. They will share their experiences in selecting a program and implementing virtual reference.

User Behavior and Website/Discovery Layer Design

Our presentation describes the implementation process of Primo at Franklin College to date. In the spring of 2011, the initial implementation phase consisted of interface design and functionality through informal usability studies. In addition, our presentation focuses on the continuous use of Primo in instructional sessions and the evaluation of the Primo as it is used by students.

Designing Library Spaces

What does it mean to Evolve? Why do libraries need to Evolve? This presentation will cover what Dave and Brian have dubbed the Evolve Project; changing the way people see libraries. They recently underwent a seismic change that radically reshaped the Children's Area in the library. Utilizing new innovative technologies such as interactive book ends, ebars, story hour all day, and creation areas to build interactive legos; all within an exciting environment with vibrant colors and a modern feel to appeal to youths and teens. Learn what it is to be innovative and how to become more than just books. In today's times, libraries must become the frontier for interaction and engagement while embedding their environments to include new technology, open spaces, and unique programs to pull in patrons.

Going Beyond Gmail: Evolving Productivity Through the Use of Google Apps

In March 2012, the Tipton County Public Library made an abrupt switch from Microsoft Exchange to Gmail for their e-mail system. But what about the other Google Apps available? What are they, and how can the library use them to their full advantage? Come to this session for a glimpse into how the staff of TCPL is making plans to evolve their productivity by going beyond Gmail.

Digital Library Brown Bag: Wikipedia GLAM Project: 10/31/12

Please join us Wednesday, October 31 for a digital library brown bag presentation by Chanitra Bishop. The presentation will be held at the Herman B Wells Library, room E174, from 12:00pm - 1:00pm. Folks dressed up in Halloween costumes are especially welcome!

The Wikipedia GLAM Project: Its Really Not About Fashion

Chanitra Bishop, Instruction and Emerging Technologies Librarian, Reference Services
Wells Library, E174

Contrary to what its name might suggest, GLAM, which is a fairly new wiki project on Wikipedia, stands for Galleries, Libraries, Archives, and Museums. The goal of the project is to improve Wikipedia's content related to cultural topics. The Wikipedia GLAM project is one of Wikipedia's most popular and successful projects. This presentation will provide an overview of the project and discuss some of the institutions that have been involved in the project, such as the Indianapolis Children's Museum, the Smithsonian, and the National Archives.

Presentation slides and audio will be available via the Connect Meeting Service (formerly known as "Breeze"). Go to <http://breeze.iu.edu/diglib> to view and listen to the presentation. If you are not a registered user for Connect Meeting/Breeze, select the "Enter as a Guest" option.

The Digital Library Brown Bag series is held most Wednesdays this Fall 2012 semester. All presentations are in the Herman B Wells Library, room E174, from 12:00pm - 1:00pm unless otherwise noted. The complete schedule, including abstracts, is available on the Digital Library Program web site: <http://www.dlib.indiana.edu/education/brownbags/>.

To receive a reminder and an abstract of each presentation, send an email to listserv@indiana.edu with the message body:
