Intellectual Freedom Round Table Offering an Exciting Preconference for ALA Annual 2007!

Celebrating the Library Bill of Rights

Thursday, June 21, 2007, 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Spend an afternoon with library intellectual freedom activists from around the United States as we celebrate one of our profession's most important documents: The American Library Association's Library Bill of Rights. A panel of speakers who have faced challenges will talk about what the LBOR means to them. Then, there will be an opportunity to participate in facilitated table discussions of the many LBOR interpretations that have been passed by ALA Council over the years.

This program is guaranteed to engage and enthuse participants.

Tickets: $25

To register, just check off Celebrating the Library Bill of Rights on your ALA paper or online form. If you've already registered for the Conference, call 1-800-545-2433 extension 5 to add this preconference to your itinerary. ATTITUDE MATTERS AWARD

The Attitude Matters Award, established by the Dean of Libraries, recognizes the importance of a good attitude in the success of the Libraries. Good attitude leads to positive energy for change, for doing the daily work, for establishing good working relationships in and out of the Libraries, and in making the workplace more productive and pleasant. The Dean would like to reward good attitudes and discourage behavior that separates us and impedes our work together.

This award can be given to an individual only. Nominations are open and can be made by any library employee, including potential nominees.

The nomination form is available at <http://www.libraries.iub.edu/intranet/materials.php?mt=paper&Id=1529>.

Send nomination forms to Shawny Taysom, Wells Library 234 or staysom@indiana.edu, by Friday, March 30, 2007.

The award will be presented at the annual Retirement and Recognition Reception on Thursday, April 19.

ART OF LEADERSHIP EXHIBITION

“The Art of Leadership: An Exhibition from the Senatorial Papers of Birch Bayh” is now on display in the main gallery of the Lilly Library. Birch Bayh accomplished an extraordinary amount during his three-term career as U.S. Senator from Indiana (1963-1980). The outlines of that career are highlighted in this exhibition, with an attempt to provide insights into the nature of his unique legislative leadership. Included is documentation of his achievements in amending the Constitution to ensure orderly presidential succession (25th Amendment) and to lower the voting age to 18 (26th Amendment), and in federal disaster relief, the struggle of African-Americans for social and economic justice, elimination of discrimination against women, judicial ethics, juvenile delinquency and reform of the juvenile justice system, drug abuse and regulation, the rights of citizens vis-à-vis the intelligence requirements for national security, oversight of the oil industry, development of alternative fuels, and patent law and technology transfer. Also included are materials documenting his Indiana legislative career (1955-1961) and his continuous and ongoing efforts to bring about direct popular election of the President. The exhibition runs from January 29 through May 5, 2007. The Lilly Library is open from 9 to 6 Monday through Friday and from 9 to 1 on Saturday.
