Call for Proposals is Now Open for ILF Conference

The Indiana Library Federation (ILF) District 1 Annual Conference
Blue Chip Casino Stardust Event Center, Michigan City, IN | May 9, 2017
Submissions will be accepted until September 5, 2016

The ILF District 1 Conference Committee is seeking proposals that reflect all areas of our profession. Participation in this call is encouraged from librarians, staff, and administrators from all types of libraries. Contributions received during the Call for Proposals will be reviewed by members of the Conference Committee.

Possible topic areas include; but are not limited to:

- Administration and leadership
- Benchmarking as a means to achieve outcomes
- Challenge of providing library services with shrinking resources
- Children's programming
- Collection development
- Digitization of local collections
- Disaster planning
- Fund raising
- Library as place
- Library services for disabled persons
- Library services in a linguistically diverse community
- Literacy programs
- Marketing of library services
- Renovating the library
- Teen programming

Staff News

Mireille Djenno Accepts Position

Area Studies is excited to announce that Mireille Djenno has accepted the position of African Studies Librarian effective September 6. She is currently the Librarian for African, African American and Diaspora Studies, and the Director of the Sonja Haynes Stone Center Library for Black Culture and History at UNC-Chapel Hill. Previously, Mireille was a Reference Librarian at the University of Illinois-Chicago. She holds an MLIS and an MA in Comparative Literature from the University of Wisconsin, Madison. Please join us in welcoming Mireille to the Libraries when she arrives in early September.
