About the Artists

Cuban-born ZEYDA RUGA SUZUKI, as a soloist with many major orchestras and festivals and with her husband, Japanese violinist Hidetaro Suzuki, as the Suzuki Duo, has toured extensively throughout Asia, Europe, the former Soviet Union, and North America. She is also a much sought-after collaborator with international artists. A resident of Indianapolis since 1979, Mrs. Suzuki has presented numerous chamber music works in the popular series she and her husband (who is also concertmaster of the Indianapolis Symphony) founded, "Suzuki and Friends."

She has appeared in the Indianapolis Museum of Art's Mozart Series and several piano recitals.

Mrs. Suzuki holds diplomas from Havana's Municipal Conservatory and the Curtis Institute, where she was a pupil of Rudolf Serkin. She earned her doctorate at Laval University in Quebec where she headed the chamber music department from 1971-1979. She was Visiting Professor of Piano at Indiana University South Bend for the 1990-1991 academic year.

Originally from Buffalo, New York, cellist THOMAS ROSENBERG is a founding member of the Chester String Quartet. A graduate of the Oberlin Conservatory, he also holds a Master's degree from the Eastman School of Music where he studied with and was teaching assistant to Paul Katz and Lawrence Lesser. He has studied with many noted chamber musicians including members of the Budapest, Guarneri, Cleveland, Tokyo and Juilliard quartets.

Among some of the honors awarded to him are top prizes for chamber music at the Munich, Portsmouth and Chicago Discovery competitions. He is a member of the New York Chamber Ensemble with whom he regularly performs in the major halls of New York City and at the Cape May Festival in New Jersey. In addition, he is Vice-President and Artistic Director of the prestigious Fischhoff National Chamber Music Competition.

Mr. Rosenberg is currently Associate Professor of Cello and Artist-in-Residence at Indiana University South Bend.
