Popular Lecture Courses

PULITZER PRIZE PLAYS

A series of ten lectures by Mrs. Bess Sondel of the University of Chicago, Thursday, 7:15 p.m., beginning September 15. Room 101, Central Senior High School. Non-credit fee, $5 for the series, payable in advance. ($10 for credit students. See page 11).

A study of America's prize-winning plays from 1917 to the present time. The playwrights include the outstanding names in American drama. The prize plays will be read and analyzed within the broader scope of each author's complete works. The course as a whole, beginning as it does in 1917 and coming up to the present time, offers a schematic impression of the development of drama within the last two decades.

September	15.	The Evolution of the "Play of Ideas."
September	22.	Eugene O'Neill—America's foremost playwright.
September	29.	Sidney Howard—His evolution as a playwright.
October	6.	George Kelly—His technique for portraying character.
October	13.	Paul Green—Writer of "regional" plays.
October	20.	Elmer Rice—Naturalist and expressionist.
October	27.	Maxwell Anderson—Poet, playwright, thinker.
November	3.	Thornton Wilder—American man of letters.
November	10.	The Place of American Drama in World Drama.
November	17.	The Way the Theater is Going.

ETHICS

A series of sixteen lectures presented by Dr. Lionel Ruby. Wednesday, 7:15 p.m., beginning September 21. Room 122, Central Senior High School. Fee $5, payable in advance. ($15 for credit students. See page 13.)

An introduction to the problems of morality. The following topics will be considered: the origins of morality; moral codes and customs; the major theories as to the nature of the good; analysis of the principles involved in individual and social conduct; present-day problems of social morality in such fields as the family, business, and politics. This is an introductory course in philosophy and no previous courses are required.

South Bend-Mishawaka Extension Center of Indiana University

University Extension is an instrument for carrying to the general public the privileges of a university. The South Bend-Mishawaka Center has been organized for young people who wish to carry on Freshman and Sophomore work, and for mature people who wish to make good use of their leisure time. A few courses of graduate level are offered. Last year 422 different persons took advantage of this opportunity in South Bend.

The Office of the South Bend Center is in the Administration Building of the South Bend Public Schools, 228 South St. Joseph Street. Office hours are 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. and 1 to 5 p.m.; Saturdays, 8:30 a.m. to 12 m. Phone 3-4171.

Enrollment. Students may register at the Extension Office any time after August 22. After the second meeting students are admitted to classes only upon the approval of the instructor and upon payment of $1 for late registration. An extra fee of $1 is charged for deferred payments. Registration is not complete until fees are paid.

Classes Begin Thursday, September 15, each class meeting on the day for which it is scheduled.

Classes Will Meet at Central Senior High School, St. James Court, between Washington and Colfax Avenues and at the Madison School, 832 North Lafayette Boulevard (east entrance). Engineering Drawing at Riley High School. See Schedule of Classes.

Evening Office Hours. A representative will be at the office in Central Senior High School from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. each evening (except Saturday) from Wednesday, September 14, to Friday, September 23, for the registration of students who cannot enroll in regular office hours during the day.

A representative will be at the office in Central High School Monday through Thursday, 6:30-7:30 p.m., of the weeks in which deferred payments are due.

General Information

Classes are Open to any adult who can pursue the work with profit. University credit, however, is granted only to those who comply with the University entrance conditions. The Division is always ready to certify any work successfully completed.

Credentials. The student carrying University extension work for credit assumes the responsibility for having met the entrance requirements of Indiana University. It is not necessary to present high school credentials at the time of enrollment unless the student is carrying seven hours or more. In that case he should present credentials at the office, whereupon he will be given a ruling on his admission.

Candidates for advanced degrees must present credentials showing all college or university work before entering classes.

Entrance Requirements. See University Catalog.

Consultation on programs of work is offered by the Faculty representatives in the office at all reasonable times.

Registrations are received only in the offices of the Center, where students may fill out the proper blanks, pay their fees, and receive cards admitting them to classes. Class attendance without formal registration at the desk does not constitute enrollment.

The Maximum Load that may be taken by a student is fifteen hours per semester, the equivalent of full-time University work. Persons employed full time are not encouraged to take more than two courses at a time.

Students working for teachers' licenses who are employed in any full-time position may not take more than five hours' work in any one semester.

Requirements for Graduation. For complete requirements for graduation, see University Catalog.

Payment of Fees. All students should enroll during the first week of the semester; those registering after the second meeting of a class are required to pay an additional fee of $1. Students registering on the way to the second meeting will not be fined, but those registering after the class will be required to pay the extra fee. Payment in full is due with registration.

Deferred Fees. Extra fee for deferred payments is $1. If fee payments are deferred, the student agrees to make payments to Indiana University Extension Division in the following manner:

3/10 of entire fee, plus $1 for deferring payment, at registration (September 15-24)
3/10 during or before end of fourth week of classes (October 10-15)
2/10 during or before end of seventh week of classes (October 31-November 5)
2/10 during or before end of ninth week of classes (November 14-19)

If fees are not paid at above stated times, the student will be withdrawn from the class rolls. The student is held responsible for the payment of fees due up to the time the Extension Division receives written notice of withdrawal.

Reduced Rates. A full program of fifteen hours such as would be taken on the campus costs $60 a semester, or $120 for the year. Fees are based on the amount of work taken, at the following rates:

$5 per hour for the first five hours of enrollment.
$4 per hour for the second five hours of enrollment.
$3 per hour for any over ten hours.
The fee for graduate courses is $6 a semester hour.

Auditors or non-credit students pay the regular fees unless special rates are announced.

Extra Fee for Late Registration. See above.

An Examination Fee of $1 is charged students who take examinations at other than the regular times.

Refunds. Limited refunds in proportion to the elapsed fraction of the first ten weeks of the semester, dating from the time of written applications, are allowed. No refunds after the tenth week. If students withdraw from classes, they are required to pay all fees due up to the time of written notification of withdrawal.

Class Attendance must be regular. Credit may not be given to any student who has not attended three-fourths of the class meetings unless arrangements can be made with the instructor for making up the work of the lost meetings.

Visiting Classes. Students may visit classes the first meeting if uncertain about enrollment. After the first week visitors must secure a card at the desk. Popular lecture courses must be paid for in advance.

Classes are Withdrawn in case the registration is deemed insufficient to warrant offering them.

University Credit is given to each student upon the satisfactory completion of a course, provided the student has met all prerequisites, including the entrance requirements of the University. The requirements are given in the University Catalog. Grade cards are sent to students at the end of the semester.

Grades. The grades stand approximately for per cents as follows: A, 95-100; B, 85-94; C, 75-84; D, 65-74; E, conditioned; F, failed. Students must notify the office immediately upon withdrawal from a class, otherwise the record will be marked "failed." See University Catalog for "credit points."

Instructors are regular members of the Faculty of Indiana University or specially qualified business and professional men and women who have been formally approved as Extension lecturers by the University.

Textbooks are sold at the Extension Division office. Students should purchase them immediately after the first meeting of a class. In order to avoid delay in securing texts after the original supply is exhausted, students should leave individual orders. Such orders are filled by telegraph during the first week.

A Circulating Library, consisting of books owned by the Extension Division and on deposit from the Public Library, is available to students. These books may be borrowed for a period of one week only.

One-half of the Regular Four-Year University Course, or sixty hours, may be completed in the Extension Division. Freshman and Sophomore work or all of the Two-Year Elective Course may be completed at an extension center provided the center offers the subjects which the student wants.

The Senior Year. Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts must do the thirty hours of the work of the Senior year in residence at this University. Mature students of Senior standing who have established a satisfactory record through two years' work in residence may, however, upon written approval of the Head or Chairman of the department in which they are doing their major work and with the consent of the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, continue their work through the Extension Division or in a foreign university.

Attendance at Other Colleges. No student carrying full-time work at any other college is permitted to enroll in an Extension class without written approval of his Dean.

Purdue University Accepts for credit on engineering curricula certain courses offered in extension centers. Purdue gives a course in Engineering Drawing.

Correspondence Courses, offered by the University, may be carried to supplement class work. Interested persons will be given the announcement of Correspondence Courses.

High School Courses by University Extension. Mature students who have not completed their high school education may do so through the University Extension Division courses given by mail. For further information address Indiana University Extension Division at Bloomington.

Pre-Medical Work

Three years, or ninety-four semester hours, of collegiate work are now required of all students for matriculation in the Indiana University School of Medicine. Approximately two years of this work, including required subjects, may be done in the Extension Center. See the Bulletin of the Medical School for important further information regarding admission.

Quantitative requirements. The transcript must show:

	Semester Hours
Zoölogy	12
Physics	8
Chemistry (General and Organic)	16
English Composition	6
Modern Language (not less than)	10

Psychology	3
Groups IV and V	12
Elective (27) to make total of	94

Pre-Dental Work

Pre-dental requirements include the following:

Chemistry (4 hours Organic)	12
English Composition	6
Zoölogy	6
Physics	6
Elective (30 hours) to make total of	60

Pre-Business Work

The first two years of the course in the School of Business Administration may be carried in extension.

Pre-Law Work

Students intending to enter the Indiana University School of Law will be admitted with as much as sixty hours of extension credit if the student completes his work for an A.B. or a B.S. degree. A student may not enter the Law School without an academic degree unless he takes a prescribed curriculum in residence. A student expecting to enter Law School with less than four years of college work must do all of his work in residence.

Two-Year Elective Course

For students who expect to attend college only one or two years and who desire a general education providing for a degree of culture and a certain adaptation to present-day life, the University has designed the Two-Year Elective Course. This course allows the student to pursue the studies in which he is especially interested, and frees him from all required subjects leading to degrees. A certificate is issued at the end of the two-year course.

Any student who elects the two-year course may continue his education along either broader or more specialized lines in one or the other of the colleges and may secure the A.B. or B.S. degree by completing the requirements of the four-year course.

Extension Credits Accepted by Purdue University

Many courses offered by the extension centers of Indiana University are equivalent to the required and elective subjects in the curricula of Purdue University. Credits in subjects carried by extension, as they apply to these curricula, will be accepted by Purdue University where the grades received are higher than the lowest passing grade of Indiana University.

Students planning to study engineering but who at present are unable to enroll at Purdue University may receive sufficient credits through a year of extension work to reduce their residence on the campus by approximately one year.

Purdue students can take the following courses in the South Bend Center and later enter Purdue as Sophomores short only one semester each of shop and surveying.

FIRST SEMESTER		SECOND SEMESTER
Chemistry	5 hours	Chemistry	5 hours
English Composition	2 hours	English Composition	2 hours
Engineering Drawing	2 hours	Engineering Drawing	2 hours
Algebra	2½ hours	Analytic Geometry	5 hours
Trigonometry	2½ hours

It is recommended that students add two hours' work in public speaking one semester and three hours' work in Freshman literature another semester, thereby clearing sufficient time in the Sophomore year at Purdue to take shop and surveying work.

Engineering Drawing PM-11, first semester and repeated second semester; Engineering Drawing PM-12, second semester, 2 credits each. Fee $10 per semester plus text and supplies.

These courses are the same as offered on the Purdue campus and will be offered by an instructor employed by Purdue University.

Students who desire to study engineering at Purdue University later should enroll in engineering drawing offered by Purdue University and in chemistry, mathematics, English, modern language or history offered by Indiana University. Following this coöperative plan a student may complete practically one year's work toward a degree in any of the Engineering courses offered by Purdue University.

Enrollment in the Purdue courses will be made at the offices of Indiana University Extension Division in South Bend.

See Schedule of Classes.

Description of Courses

The following descriptions cover courses which carry credit toward a degree. The credit courses are practically identical with those offered in residence at the University. A student who receives credit for an extension course is not permitted to take the same or similar course in residence and receive credit for both.

The letter E, which appears with each course number, indicates merely that the course is offered by the Extension Division. The letters a and b indicate which semester of the year's work is being announced if the course is one which is given throughout the University year.

Course numbers were changed some time ago by the addition of prefixes "1" and "2," the more elementary courses being in the one hundreds and the more advanced in the two hundreds.

Courses marked with an asterisk (*) are available for graduate credit.

Classes carrying two hours of credit meet sixteen weeks; all others meet seventeen weeks.

"Graduate credit" means credit earned after graduation from a four-year university course, and intended for application toward an advanced university degree. This term should not be confused with the simple term "credit," which is used throughout the bulletin to mean credit toward graduation with the A.B. or B.S. degree. The fee for courses taken for "graduate credit" is $6 per credit hour; the fee for other courses is $5 per credit hour. Numbers in parentheses indicate the amount of University credit in semester hours.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

E101a. Introduction to Accounting. Thursday, 7:15-9:30 p.m. Room 103, Central High School. $15. (3) Mr. LARIMORE.

A beginning course introducing bookkeeping procedure by which the student should obtain at the very outset a clear concept of net worth or capital. The approach to the subject is consequently through the corporation rather than the individual proprietorship. The beginning student will grasp the idea of capital stock and surplus much more readily than the more complicated individual proprietorship account. Covers: journalizing, posting, taking a trial balance, preparing working papers and statements, and closing the books. Laboratory material includes questions, problems, and practice sets. Practice sets are comparatively brief and can be completed as an assignment with a single chapter.

CHEMISTRY

E101a. General Chemistry (Inorganic). Monday and Wednesday, 6:15-9:45 p.m. Room 206, Central High School. $25 plus $2 laboratory fee. (5) Mr. GERKIN, Mr. SANFORD.

Lectures, demonstrations, and laboratory work covering the regular introductory course in chemistry. Deals with the laws and theoretical principles of the subject, with specific study of the more common elements and their compounds.

E203. Qualitative Analysis. Monday and Wednesday, 6:15-9:45 p.m. Room 206, Central High School. $25 plus $2 laboratory fee. (5) Mr. GERKIN, Mr. SANFORD.

The analysis of metals and acids. Prerequisites, Chemistry 101a and 101b or their equivalent.

EDUCATION

Graduate Courses in Education

All graduate students in Education should consult the Bulletin of the School of Education as to general regulations, options for degrees, and possibilties of satisfying administrative license requirements while satisfying the requirements for either the A.M. or M.S. degree.

Students working for teachers' or administrative licenses or for advanced degrees who are employed in any full-time position may not take more than five hours' work in any one semester.

E562. Principles and Organization of Vocational Education. Saturday, 8-10 a.m. Room 103, Central High School. $15. (2½) Mr. LEWIS.

E564. Vocational and Educational Guidance. Saturday, 10 a.m.-12 m. Room 103, Central High School. $15. (2½) Mr. LEWIS.

Second Semester Courses

E517. Theory and Application of Mental Measurements. (2½) Mr. SOMERS.

E517B. Psychology of Individual Differences. (2½) Mr. SOMERS.

ENGINEERING

PM-11 (Purdue). Engineering Drawing. Tuesday and Thursday, 3:45-6:15 p.m. Room 204, Riley High School. $10. (2) Mr. WEBB.

Required of students in Engineering at Purdue. Open to beginners.

ENGLISH

The Examination for exemption from English Composition will be held on Monday, September 12, at 9 a.m., School Administration Building, 228 South St. Joseph Street. The examination is optional.

E101a. English Composition. Section 1, Monday, 4-5:45 p.m. Room 120, Central High School; Section 2, Tuesday, 7:15-9 p.m. Room 119, Central High School. $10. (2) Mr. DEEN.

Planned to give a mastery of fundamentals. Includes the study of grammar, punctuation, spelling, paragraphing, and the writing of a theme a week.

Correct English. Tuesday, 6-7 p.m. Room 119, Central High School. $5. First twelve weeks. No credit.

Open to all students enrolled in composition classes for $1 fee. A thorough oral drill in the fundamentals of grammar and punctuation, designed especially for business people, for students who did not attend high school, and for students whose high school training was inadequate. No theme writing is required. Exercises will be used.

E102a. Freshman English Literature. Wednesday, 1-3:15 p.m. Room 211, Madison School. $15. (3) Mr. DEEN.

Origin and history of the essay; reading of representative essays of Bacon, Addison, Steele, Lamb, Hazlitt, Arnold, Stevenson, and some modern essayists. Study of comedy, tragedy, and their subdivisions; five or six plays ranging from Shakespeare's day to modern times studied in detail. Prerequisite to all advanced work in English literature; required of English majors.

E160a. Public Speaking. Thursday, 5:15-7 p.m. Room 101, Central High School. $10. (2) Mrs. SONDEL.

Preparation and delivery of various types of speeches, such as sales talks, campaign addresses, after-dinner speeches, etc. Helps to overcome self-consciousness; develops ability to express one's self effectively before both large and small audiences.

E250b. Twentieth-Century Poetry (American). Monday, 6:30-8:15 p.m. Room 120, Central High School. $10 ($12 for graduate credit). (2) Mr. DEEN.

A survey of American poetry in our time, tracing its history from Whitman and Emily Dickinson through such representative figures as Masters, Vachel Lindsay, Sandburg, Millay, Frost, Robinson, Amy Lowell, Robinson Jeffers, Ezra Pound, T. S. Eliot, Hart Crane, and Archibald MacLeish. There will be lectures and discussion based on the reading of selections.

E252a. American Literature. Wednesday, 7:15-9:30 p.m. Room 121, Central High School. $15. (3) Mr. DEEN.

The historical and philosophical background of the great writers of America will be presented in class lectures, and excerpts from the writings of leading authors will be read and discussed. The semester's work includes the writers from 1608 to the Civil War. Not open to graduate students. Required for the high school teacher's license in English.

E276. Pulitzer Prize Plays. Thursday, 7:15-9 p.m. Room 101, Central High School. $10 ($5 for auditors). (2) Mrs. SONDEL.

A study of America's prize winning plays from 1917 to the present time. The playwrights include outstanding names in American drama.

The prize plays will be read and analyzed within the broader scope of each author's complete works.

FRENCH

E101a. Elementary French. Tuesday and Thursday, 7:15-9:15 p.m. Room 121, Central High School. $25. (5) Miss HARTMAN.

Beginner's course, including study of grammar, composition, and reading. Runs throughout the year, and corresponds to the first year's work at the University.

GEOGRAPHY

E109a. Elements of Geography. Tuesday and Thursday, 5:15-7:15 p.m. Room 121, Central High School. $25. (5) Mr. KELLER.

The relation of the activities of man to his physical environment. A discussion of the effects of such factors as location, land forms, bodies of water, soils and minerals, climate. Required for the elementary school license, meets the requirements for high school teacher's license in social science and may be applied on the science requirement for graduation.

HISTORY

E101a. History of Western European Civilization (formerly Mediaeval and Modern European History). Tuesday, 7:15-9:30 p.m. Room 120, Central High School. $15. (3) Mr. CUMMINS.

The first semester traces the development of European institutions and ideas from the fall of the Roman Empire to the Protestant Reformation. Discusses not only the political evolution of the modern European states-system, but the unfolding social, economic, and religious institutions as well. Feudalism, the Mediaeval Church, and the struggle between the Papacy and the Empire will be emphasized. Provides the basis for an understanding of the modern civilization of both Europe and America. Required for a high school license in history and the social sciences.

E105a. American History. Tuesday, 5-7:15 p.m. Room 120, Central High School. $15. (3) Mr. CUMMINS.

Brief survey of American colonial history; a more intensive study of the Revolution; formation of the American union and federal government; divorcement of the United States from the European balance of power; westward movement and expansion; early struggles over slavery. Required for the elementary and high school (social studies) licenses.

E234a. Europe Since 1914. Wednesday, 5-7:15 p.m. Room 120, Central High School. $15 ($18 for graduate credit). (3) Mr. CUMMINS.

The first semester will cover the years 1914 to 1920. The causes of the World War, the course of the war, the Russian revolutions of 1917, the dissolution of Austria-Hungary, the peace treaties, the League of Nations.

HYGIENE

E101. Elementary Hygiene. Monday, 5-6 p.m. Room 122, Central High School. $5. (1) Mrs. HOLDEMAN.

A study of various fields of hygiene. Present health trends; medical practices; infectious diseases; personal hygiene; the importance of a knowledge of hygienic rules. Required of all students in either the Freshmen or Sophomore year.

MATHEMATICS

E102. College Algebra. Wednesday, 7:15-9:15 p.m. Room 123, Central High School. $12.50. (2½) Mr. BROMAN.

The regular Freshman course in algebra. Open to students who have had high school algebra and geometry.

E103. Plane Trigonometry. Thursday, 7:15-9:15 p.m. Room 123, Central High School. $12.50. (2½) Mr. THORNTON.

The regular Freshman course in trigonometry. Open to students who have had high school algebra and geometry.

E207a. Elementary Calculus. Tuesday, 7:15-9:30 p.m. Room 119, Central High School. $15. (3) Mr. BROMAN.

A course in differential calculus open to students who have had university algebra, trigonometry, and analytic geometry.

PHILOSOPHY

E203. Ethics. Wednesday, 7:15-9:30 p.m. Room 122, Central High School. $15 ($5 for auditors). (3) Mr. RUBY.

An introduction to the problems of morality. The following topics will be considered: the origins of morality; moral codes and customs; the major theories as to the nature of the good; analysis of the principles involved in individual and social conduct; present-day problems of social morality in such fields as the family, business, and politics. This is an introductory course in philosophy and no previous courses are required.

PSYCHOLOGY

E101. Elementary Psychology. Monday, 7-9:15 p.m. Room 123, Central High School. $15. (3) Mrs. FRITH.

Survey of the fundamentals of human nature. Elemental brain structure; original instinctive endowments; steps in mental growth. Special attention to the practical problems of everyday life; economy in memorizing; concentration of attention; effective reasoning; regulation of emotions. Completed in one semester. Required of business and medical students.

E141. Applied Psychology. Tuesday, 7:15-9:30 p.m. Room 122, Central High School. $15. (3) Mrs. FRITH.

A second course in psychology in which the psychological study of special problems is discussed. Principal topics will be psychology and social problems, psychology and law, psychology and medicine, psychology in industry, psychology and art. The course designed to follow its prerequisite, Psychology 101. With this and Psychology 104 it fulfills the ten-hour science requirement of the College of Arts and Sciences. Applied Psychology may be taken without prerequisite by those not desiring University credit.

E261. Mental Hygiene. Monday, 4-6:15 p.m. Room 123, Central High School. $15 ($18 for graduate credit). (3) Mrs. FRITH.

Mental disturbances as they occur in mental breakdown of the normal subject; minor and major mental disorders such as the psychoneuroses and insanities, feeble-mindedness, repression, complexes, regression; mental hygiene of human efficiency. Five hours of psychology is a prerequisite, but workers in the fields of medicine and social service who have had a standard elementary course may be admitted upon approval of the instructor.

SOCIOLOGY

E101a. Social Problems. Monday, 7:30-9:45 p.m. Room 122, Central High School. $15. (3) Mrs. EDMONDSON.

A course for beginning students. A study of certain selected social problems of contemporary society. Poverty, unemployment, the social aspects of physical and mental diseases, old age, industrial hazards, family disorganization, crime, and juvenile delinquency. A program of treatment designed to meet these problems.

E315a. Child Welfare Problems. Thursday, 6-7:45 p.m. Room 122, Central High School. $12. (2) Mr. EVANS, Miss MASSOTH.

A survey of the field of child welfare, including a description of the social problems of childhood, of community resources and methods of meeting them, and a discussion of the development of modern concepts of child care. Open also to mature, experienced students.
