JOB POSTING

Librarian for English and American Literature, IUB

The Librarian for English and American Literature serves as the collections and public services specialist for these fields. Other subject responsibilities will be assigned contingent on the applicant's qualifications and institutional needs. The English and American Literature collections span the entire range of English studies- from medieval studies and literary theory to postcolonial and ethnic American literatures as well as creative writing and gender and performance studies. Holdings in 19th and 20th-century literature are especially strong, and are complemented by several digital collections, including the Victorian Women Writers Project and Wright American Fiction and the special collections in the Lilly Library. Review of applications will begin on 9/23/02. The position will remain open until filled. For more information and/or a complete copy of the job posting, please contact Betty Davis in Libraries Human Resources at (812) 855-8196 or e-mail her at betdavis@indiana.edu.
