

what's JP!

For the week of January 30
Published by Communications & Marketing and Campus Life

Tell us how you REALLY feel.

I wish my program had an internship. I would like to work with other students on class projects. I wish my classes covered more diverse perspectives.

We're listening. The National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE) is your bridge to making real changes on campus. More internship and service-learning opportunities, better ways to work on capstone and class projects, a curriculum that represents broad perspectives-these are just some of the kinds of improvements that can be made using your feedback from the NSSE survey. Freshmen and seniors will get the survey e-mail in mid February.

Intramural Basketball is BACK!
